Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity has a policy not to hold any reserves but to retain and raise sufficient funds for the charitable projects in the UK. During the period a total of £10,711 was secured in donations and grants including a grant from Awards for All of £10,000. Expenditure during the period was £3,670, with the costs primarily for the delivery of the Refugee project. This generated a surplus of £7,041 for the period which the trustees will use for continuation of the projects and to benefit more refugees.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

This is the first year of the charity in which the trustees tried to establish the charity and its projects. During the year, the trustees faced delays in opening a bank account which was due to Covid-19 and the end of the period a bank account was still not available. The trustees volunteered their time to help the vulnerable during Covid-19 and support the local food bank. The trustees are confident that the public will benefit from projects in the near future. The trustees have considered the general guidance on public benefit issued by the Charity Commission and has taken due regard of that guidance. The trustees consider that they are satisfied that the charity's activities will benefit the public as the trustees have identified some projects which will be undertaken in the near future.
