Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	The objects of the CIO are to advance the education of the public in the subjects of science, technology, engineering and maths (STEM), by the provision of grants and financial support and by promoting research and disseminating the useful results of that research.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	Due to COVID Break Off Labs was not very active in its first year. A small amount of funding was raised to contribute towards the objects.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	Break Off Labs has ensured that it is being operated for public benefit only.

Achievements and Performance

--	----------------	--

Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	Break Off Labs setup a virtual round-the-world relay to raise funding for climate change research and associated charitable causes. People record their activities using Strava and donate to the Charity. This was commenced in December, so only a small amount of funding was raised. Prior to that the website was built and minimal activity due to COVID. Money raised from the virtual relay has not been used towards any research as of the end of the financial period, but some has been set aside for charitable causes in this area.
