To advance the education of the public in the history and effect of the Holocaust,

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

- Providing schools, religious, community and civic institutions with speakers who have a personal connection with Holocaust survivors.
- Recruiting descendants of Holocaust survivors who wish to develop a presentation to tell their family story.
- Training and development of potential speakers to deliver educational and engaging presentations using survivor testimony and artefacts.
- Developing educational resources to support teachers to extend learning
- Holding monthly on-line events to give a platform to G2G speakers and to invite other speakers to discuss issues of relevance today.
- Cooperating with other groups and organisations engaged with Holocaust education and education against racism.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

The charity is run for and by its volunteers, with funds used for professional services.

Volunteers are involved as follows:

- Management
- Administration and Coordination
- Mentoring presenters
- Reviewing presentations
- Outreach
- Public relations
- Fundraising
- Delivering Presentations

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the yearA: Achievements*1. Outreach:

- In 2023 G2G speakers delivered more than 330 presentations to 40,000+ people.
- This represents a 30% increase on the previous year.

2. Number of accredited speakers

- In 2023 we increased the number of accredited G2G Holocaust speakers from 26 to 34
- We expect to increase this to 40 accredited speakers by the end of 2024.
- To include eight 3rd Generation speakers and six speakers outside London.

3. Speaker development

- 8 new potential speakers were recruited to start training and development
- 20 prospective speakers receiving support to develop presentations.
- 13 mentors allocated to speakers on a one-to-one basis
- 14 speaker training workshops attended

4. Educational Resources:

- We have created 4 new resource packs to a total of 25, each complementing a specific presentation.
- These resources support educators hosting a G2G speaker, to extend student learning.

5. Events and news

- Our monthly public events and quarterly newsletter have engaged 1000+ subscribers
- This includes events co-hosted with other organisations involved in Holocaust education and organisations creating awareness of other Genocides. Attendance varies from 50-120 people.
- Our newsletter focuses on current issues relevant to our work and is received by 700+ people three times per year.

6. Awareness of G2G has increased significantly

- Evidenced by invitations to significant events, word of mouth referrals, referrals from significant organisations and more enquiries through our website.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31/12/2023.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *) in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
