REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31 DECEMBER 2022

The trustees present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2022. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019).

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and aims

The objectives and aims of the charity are to preserve and protect the health of people affected by Cauda Equina Syndrome for the public benefit by:

- (a) providing support, assistance and information directly or indirectly to people affected by Cauda Equina Syndrome;
- (b) furthering and building awareness, education and research in respect of Cauda Equina Syndrome and its treatment and prevention; and
- (c) promoting and influencing effective care, involvement and support for people affected by Cauda Equina Syndrome.

Significant activities

Cauda Equina Champions Charity is a patient led organisation that aims to raise awareness of Cauda Equina Syndrome, support those living with the condition and provide bespoke, tailor made services for service users and their loved ones.

The main activities undertaken by the charity to further its charitable purposes were:

- a) Hosting online and face to face support group meetings nationally. The support group now has 4,300 members;
- b) Free CES Buddy service, helpline and signposting service;
- c) Funded sexual psychotherapy and psychological therapy service for CES patients;
- d) Funded wheelchair skills course;
- e) Residential CES patient workshops and social events;
- f) Being included in the new Suspected CES pathway for post operative support for CES patients;
- g) Delivering patient experience stories and red flag training to medical students;
- h) Publication of patient support packs;
- i) Delivering the Cauda Equina Syndrome Festival to mark CES Awareness Day (Annual Awareness Day created by the charity on October 1st 2020);
- j) Creating patient participation group to represent lived experience of CES;
- k) Delivering lived experience training to 1,500 medical students;
- l) Answering 1,000 new enquiries via website and helpline;
- m) Creating and publishing the Red flag leaflet for people with learning disabilities, working in partnership with People First Keighley and Craven;
- n) Publishing the patient story book "The Lost Tribe: Stories from Survivors of Cauda Equina Syndrome".

Public benefit

The trustees confirm that they have complied with the requirements of Section 4 of the Charities Act 2011 to have due regard to the public benefit guidance published by the Charity Commission for England and Wales.

Volunteers

The charity relies on volunteers drawn from the ranks of the Trustees and other trusted individuals.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Principal funding sources

The principal funding sources are donations and corporate partnership fundraising with Cauda Equina Syndrome Association C.I.C.

Reserves policy

The charity holds reserves sufficient for its requirements for the foreseeable future but does not hold excessive reserves.

Going concern

At the time of approving the financial statements, the trustees have a reasonable expectation that the charity has adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future. As such, the trustees continue to adopt the going concern basis of accounting in preparing the financial statements.

CAUDA EQUINA CHAMPIONS CHARITY

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of Cauda Equina Champions Charity

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of Cauda Equina Champions Charity (the Trust) for the year ended 31 December 2022.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under Section 145 of the Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under Section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Trust as required by Section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31 DECEMBER 2022

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of preparing the financial statements

The financial statements of the charity, which is a public benefit entity under FRS 102, have been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS 102) 'Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019)', Financial Reporting Standard 102 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland' and the Charities Act 2011. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

The charity has taken advantage of the following disclosure exemptions in preparing these financial statements, as permitted by FRS 102 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland':

- the requirements of Section 7 Statement of Cash Flows.

Income

All income is recognised in the Statement of Financial Activities once the charity has entitlement to the funds, it is probable that the income will be received and the amount can be measured reliably.

Cash donations are recognised on receipt. Other donations are recognised once the charity has been informed of the donation.

Expenditure

Liabilities are recognised as expenditure as soon as there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to that expenditure, it is probable that a transfer of economic benefits will be required in settlement and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably. Expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all cost related to the category. Where costs cannot be directly attributed to particular headings they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources.

Taxation

The charity is exempt from tax on its charitable activities.

Fund accounting

Unrestricted funds can be used in accordance with the charitable objectives at the discretion of the trustees.

Restricted funds can only be used for particular restricted purposes within the objects of the charity. Restrictions arise when specified by the donor or when funds are raised for particular restricted purposes.

Further explanation of the nature and purpose of each fund is included in the notes to the financial statements.
