Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document (eg. trust deed, constitution)	Nasrul-Lahi-il-Fathi society, Grays Thurrock Branch is constituted as a charity organisation with the charity commission
How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	Association
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	The existing trustees are responsible for the nomination of new trustee but in so doing the trustees seek the views and recommendations of both the Branch executive and the Branch elder council. The trustees believe this approach ensures that new trustees are respected members of the faith, the branch and local community and ensures that good relations are fostered between the organisation and the community. In selecting new trustees, we seek to identify people who regularly attend our weekly events and are willing to volunteer to help in our broader community work.

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Risk Management

The trustees have assessed the risk the charity faces and have drawn up a risk matrix which identifies the major risks by area of activity, the nature of those risks, the likelihood of the risks happening and the measures taken to manage them. Although the risks impact identified are rated to be minimal and we will continue to monitor this.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The charity carries out a wide range of activities in pursuance of its charitable aims. The trustees consider that these activities, summarised below, provide benefit both to those who worship with us and the wider community.

- Weekly Congregation: Our branch meets on a weekly basis for spiritual sessions. During these sessions we have over 150 members who attends on a regularly basis. The congregation continue to grow from strength to strength due to increase engagement from the executives and other arms of the organisation.
- Wo/men's Connect Committee: An active women's connect that encourages our women (single, married, divorce and widows) on the best practices of Islam with periodic lectures. The women committee also collaborate with other National Executive Committee members and Committees to ensure their activities are responsive to and beneficial to the female members of the Society. The activities include adult-literacy programmes with the Education committee, vocational training programmes with the Empowerment committee, charity visits and welfare of widows and women in general with the Welfare committee. The wing also recorded a milestone in its activity for the year. The programme was welcomed as a breath of fresh initiative and we do hope this will be improved in the coming year.
- Youth Committe: We also have an active youth committee in the society that engages the youth in several activities on a quarterly and annual basis. These include but not limited to periodic lectures on leadership training, seminars and thought-provoking symposia, yearly picnic etc. The objective is to groom leaders of tomorrow
- Health Promotion/Covid19: we constantly carry out various health promotion activities to help members understand the importance of healthy living. For the year 2021, a total of 4 promotions was achieved.
- Economic and empowerment: As part of the organisation objective, we carried out various activities to empower our members. Members have greatly benefited from these activities and we will be looking forward to 2022 to improve on this activity.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The trustees have reviewed the reserves of the charity. Their policy is to hold enough funds to meet the charity regular operating cost for up to 3 months.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- Investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The charity's main source of income is giving. The total giving for the year 2022 amounts £95,380

Our expenditure incurred for the year amount to £51,842 which leaves us with a surplus of £43,537 for the year. These expenses are cost that has to be incurred to achieve the objectives of the organisation.

Next year, plans have been put in place to drive up the act of giving to improve the organisation's finances. This improvement in finance will allow the branch to carry out and support other charity/charitable activities.

Efforts also have been made to reduce the organisation expenses and this will continue to improves our finances. The Trustee is also trying to make sure the reduction in expenditure do not impact on the services the organisation renders to the community.

NASRUL-LAHI-IL-FATHI SOCIETY

GRAYS THURROCK BRANCH

INDEPENDENT EXAMINERS REPORT
FOR PERIOD ENDING 31st DECEMBER 2022

TO THE TRUSTEES OF NASRUL LAHI IL FATHI SOCIETY

I report on the accounts of the charity for the period ended 31 December 2022

RESPECTIVE RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE TRSUTEES AND THE EXAMINER

The charity trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The Charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for the period under section 476 of the Companies Act 2006 and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of Charities Act 2011;
- follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commissioners (under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act; and
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

BASIS OF MY EXAMINATION

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the account, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a "true and fair" view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statements below.

EXAMINER'S STATEMENT

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

(1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the trustees have not met the requirements to ensure that:

- proper accounting records are not kept in accordance with the companies Act; and
- accounts are prepared which agree with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Companies Act 2006; or

(2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
