From 6/2/2020 To 28/2/2021

Charity name: BRITISH LIMB RECONSTRUCTION SOCIETY -BLRS

Charity registration number: 5145382

Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	To advance limb reconstruction services in the NHS through research, audit, training and education. To promote limb reconstruction techniques to all Orthopaedic and Plastic Surgical trainees, Limb Reconstruction Surgeons (LRSs) and Allied Health Professionals (AHPs) in United Kingdom. To aid with such other purposes which may be charitable according to the laws of England and Wales and related to the acquisition of knowledge and skills in limb reconstruction as seen fit by the Trustees.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	Education through information provision by digital and paper media to professionals and the public • Organisation of Professional Body (British Orthopaedic Association) or Royal College of Surgeons accredited courses and workshops including invited keynote lectures by nationally and internationally acknowledged leaders in the field of limb reconstruction • To host an annual meeting where the objectives of the charity can be delivered to members of the society and where new ideas and recent developments can be presented and discussed amongst the LRS and AHPs • To publish its own peer-reviewed journal "Strategies in Trauma and Limb Reconstruction" (STLR) which incorporates the latest advances, reviews and research • To support education in this field to the UK and wider world by provision of STLR as an open access journal • To provide educational grants and travel bursaries to successful LRS and AHP applicants in keeping with the objectives of the society • The Charity will raise funds by annual membership fees and sponsored educational events (courses, workshops, meetings). The focus of the Charity is the continual delivery of education and advancement of techniques in limb reconstruction. Direct benefits include an organised central forum through which coordinated efforts can be made to further the specialty in terms of education, knowledge and research. There is an indirect translation to greater treatment options and improved services to the patient community within the NHS and outside through the international education efforts. These treatment options and services influence public health through improved psychological, social, mental and physical outcomes and public productivity.
