Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

- (1)
To relieve financial hardship, distress and suffering among poor people, victims of natural disasters and other people in need by means of, but not exclusively, making grants or loans for providing or paying for items, equipment, services and facilities, including the provision of food, clean water and accommodation for the benefit of the said persons;
- (2)
To relieve sickness and to preserve good health among persons in need, by means of, but not exclusively, the provision or assistance in the provision of medical equipment or facilities such as testing and treatment centres, hospices and clinics for the benefit of the said persons;
- (3)
To advance education for the benefit of the general public by means of, but not exclusively, the provision or assistance in the provision of educational resources, equipment, activities and facilities, such as schools, training centres and scholarships;
- (4)
such other purposes which may be charitable according to the law of England and Wales.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The trustees successfully raised donations and grants for beneficial projects for the local community. The trustees established a youth club providing sports and recreational activities for over 70 young people. The trustees also delivered a luncheon club weekly that benefits 17 people regularly. Also, the charity gave grants to provide relief aid for victims of the Turkey Earthquake which benefitted 45 families, and delivered in partnership with Friends of Evington the Evington Mela which benefitted between 300 to 400 people with education, advice, social interaction and healthy recreation. The trustees have considered the general guidance on public benefit issued by the Charity Commission and has taken due regard of that guidance. The trustees consider that they are satisfied that the charity's activities benefit the public.
