Year ended 31 December 2023

The trustees present their report and accounts for the period ended 31st December 2023.

Governing Document

Igbo Women Community (IWC) Greater Manchester is a charitable incorporated organisation (CIO) governed by its constitution dated February 18, 2020.

Principal activities

The charity's principal activity during the year continued to be the promotion of opportunities that relieve and combat poverty, distress, financial hardship, and sickness, particularly through the advancement of Igbo art, culture and heritage.

Trustees

The following person served as trustees during the period:

1. Chidinma Okenyeka (Chair)
2. Rosemary Chinonso Nwokiwu
3. Anna Ifeoma Okeke

Our Objects

The objects of the charity for the public benefit include;

- a. To relieve and combat poverty, distress, financial hardship, and sickness.
- b. The relief of the physical and mental sickness of persons in need by reason of youth, age, ill health, disability, unemployment or other disadvantage, in particular by the provision of counselling, support and networking opportunities.
- c. To promote Igbo art, culture and heritage as a means of promoting social inclusion for the public benefit by preventing people from becoming socially excluded, relieving the needs of those who are socially excluded and assisting them to integrate into society.
- d. To advance education for the public benefit in Igbo culture and language.

In planning and executing the activities during the year, the trustees ensured that the guidance on public benefit issued by the Charity Commission was taken into consideration.

Chidinma Okenyeka
Chair of Trustees

IGBO WOMEN COMMUNITY (IWC) GREATER MANCHESTER
Notes to the Financial Statements
For the period ended 31 December 2023

1. Accounting Policies

Basis of preparation

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities in preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS102) (effective 1 January 2019) - (Charities SORP (FRS102)), the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS102).

Igbo Women Community (IWC) Greater Manchester meets the definition of a public benefit entity under FRS102. Assets and liabilities are initially recognised at historical cost or transaction value unless otherwise stated in the relevant accounting policy notes.

Company status

Igbo Women Community (IWC) Greater Manchester is a charitable incorporated organisation, registered with the Charity Commission of England on 18th February 2020 with charity number 1188045.

Incoming resources

All incoming resources are included in the SOFA when the company is legally entitled to the income, is reasonably certain of receipt and the amount can be measured with sufficient reliability. In accordance with the SORP, no value has been attributed to the work performed by volunteers, although their work is considered vital to the activities of the company.

Members' subscription

The monthly members subscription is £10.

Donations and gifts

Donations and gifts consist of the total donations from individuals, trusts and corporates, along with income from fundraising events.

Resources expended

Expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all costs related to the category. Costs of generating funds are those incurred in seeking voluntary income and do not include the costs of disseminating information in support of the charitable activities.

Governance costs relate to the general running of the charity as opposed to those costs associated with fundraising or charitable activity. Included within this category are costs associated with internal audit and risk, as well as external audit costs, as opposed to day-to-day management of the charity's activities.
