Trustees Annual Report of South Yorkshire Muslim Cemetery

South Yorkshire Muslim Cemetery registered as a charity in February 2020. Due to Covid the charity became dormant. However, in January 2023 a meeting was held with members of the Charity and that there was serious concern that the charity needs to appoint new trustees and enter into dialogue with the respective local councils.

Discussions also took place that due to a number of issues that had recently occurred that the charity should broaden its remit to incorporate three key areas for the community. Pre Bereavement, Bereavement and Post Bereavement support.

In order to address this and the issue of a cemetery a working party was formed of members and trustees to look at options and how the above aspects could be incorporated into the working charity.

The following was agreed:

1. The name of the charity should be changed to incorporate the additional support required. A potential name is the South Yorkshire Bereavement Trust.
2. Modify objects to incorporate education and support in the above three areas.
3. Establish a website that is able to provide advice, information and support to the wider community.

Currently no funds have been secured as the charity is not in a position to acquire funds, however moving into the year 2023 – 24 funds will be required to establish a website and a development worker to take forward the work of the charity.

It was also agreed that applications for new trustees are to be circulated.

Therefore, dormant accounts for the charity have been prepared as no financial activity took place.
