Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	Since the launch of London Retired Police Dogs Trust and registration as a registered charity LRPD have continued to grow. LRPD has overcome obstacles and developed new and innovative ways to be able to continue to fundraise. We have made awards of over £260,000 since our launch in direct response to applications received for assistance with regards to the welfare of retired police dogs up to 30/06/2025. (In this accounting period our award settlements totalled £110,787). The number of applications is increasing due to cost of living and up to 30/06/2025 we have assisted with 288 separate applications for support. Since launch, the London Retired Police Dogs Trust has grown to include retired City Of London Police Dogs and retired London Fire Brigade dogs. LRPD has also secured a working partnership with Goddards Veterinary Group who are able to offer a discount on fees relating to retired police dogs treatment.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	Statement of Assets and Liabilities at the end of this accounting period –Unrestricted cash funds of £142,586 available across our Natwest and Paypal accounts at 30/06/2025. Total received for this accounting period which includes fundraising via direct fundraising events, donations, give and you earn and merchandise sales totals; £145,636 Total deductions for this accounting period for application settlement awards totals £110,787 Total deductions for this accounting period which includes advertising, printed materials, sundries, cost price meds, insurance, IT costs, Paypal fees, postage and purchase of merchandise totals £51,070 The trustees acknowledge there is an excess of expenditure over income of £16,221 in the last accounting period but the charity still had bank balances of over £140,000 at 30 June 2025. There was a significant increase in Application Awards from £63278 to £110,787 but the charity has also increased its revenue stream via fundraising/donations/give as you earn/sale of merchandise. The trustees contribute the rise in applications to the cost-of-living crisis and people being more aware of the existence of London Retired Police Dogs Trust. The trustees have been able to assess each claim on an individual basis and due to the strength of the asset base the trustees have again been able to approve successful applications at 100% of the claim amount. They will continue to monitor the financial strength of the charity during the current and future accounting periods.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	A decision was made and agreed by all trustees that a reserve of £5,000 to remain where possible for any emergency unforeseen applications that require urgent assistance.

Set out on pages

(remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 30/06/2025.

Responsibilities and

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination (other than that disclosed below *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Set out on pages

(remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 30/06/2024.

Responsibilities and

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination (other than that disclosed below *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	To promote humane behaviour towards retired Police dogs by providing financial assistance to owners of retired Police dogs who have charge of animals that are in need of appropriate care and attention by reason of sickness, poor circumstances or welfare.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	London Retired Police Dogs Trust launched in November 2019 with ongoing fundraising through public events as a priority and then affected by the worldwide Covid pandemic we were forced to re-evaluate and find other ways of fundraising. Online Shop and Merchandise We have been successful in launching an online shop within our website www.lrpd.uk where we sell merchandise directly via the shop and also through third party volunteers and public facing events where possible following government guidance. Yearly LRPD Calendar Our yearly Calendar is produced and paid for by Metfriendly, supporters of LRPD, with all profits from sales going direct to the fund. Give as You Earn Initiative With the assistance of the Charities Aid Foundation we now successfully run a give as you earn scheme within the Metropolitan Police Service where employees can sign up to contribute a

		monthly donation direct from source to LRPD. Ongoing Volunteer Supporter Fundraising Activities Throughout the year supporters have undertaken a variety of events with fundraising on behalf of LRPD being the driving force, we have had volunteers run the Race to the King 50KM run, Great North Swim, London Marathon, Ride London, Open Days, Fetes, Fairs, Cake Sales, and Raffles to name a few. These are our staple fundraisers to date.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	In the initial Chaired AGM all trustees were introduced to the guidance on public benefit issued by the Charity Commission which is applicable when exercising any powers or duties to which the guidance would be relevant. This was reviewed again in the last AGM.

Policy on grant making	Para 1.38	Every application received for financial assistance is reviewed on an individual basis. Once the application has been reviewed by an independent vet and verified then the trustees discuss the individual application details and the current financial position of the charity and thus a decision on reward is reached. We are proud to be in a position to offer 100% of the claim amount requested in the majority of all claims to date.
Policy on social investment including program related investment	Para 1.38	N/A
Contribution made by volunteers	Para 1.38	Volunteers are integral to LRPD and have assisted in fundraising by various ways. Volunteers have shaken buckets, sold merchandise, held raffles and taken on enormous challenges all in efforts to assist us being able to meet applications for assistance relating to retired police dogs.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	Since the launch of London Retired Police Dogs Trust and registration as a registered charity LRPD have continued to grow. Despite fundraising efforts being drastically effected by the global pandemic LRPD has overcome obstacles and developed new and innovative ways to be able to continue to fundraise. We have awarded over £91,000 since our launch in direct response to applications received for assistance with regards to the welfare of retired police dogs up to 30/06/2023. (In this accounting period our award settlements totalled £53.282). The number of applications increases month on month as to be expected as a new charity with more people becoming aware of LRPD month on month. Since launch the London Retired Police Dogs Trust has grown to include retired City Of London Police Dogs and more recently has also expanded again to include retired London Fire Brigade dogs. LRPD has also secured a working partnership with Goddards Veterinary Group who are able to offer a % discount on fees relating to retired police dogs treatment.

Charity no (if any) 1188072

Set out on pages

(remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 30/06/2023.

Responsibilities and

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination (other than that disclosed below *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to	Para 1.20	Since the launch of London Retired Police Dogs Trust and registration as a registered charity LRPD have continued to grow. Despite fundraising efforts being drastically effected by the global pandemic LRPD has overcome

the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.		obstacles and developed new and innovative ways to be able to continue to fundraise. We have awarded over £43,000 since our launch in direct response to applications received for assistance with regards to the welfare of retired police dogs. The number of applications increases month on month as to be expected as a new charity with more people becoming aware of LRPD month on month. Since launch the London Retired Police Dogs Trust has grown to include retired City Of London Police Dogs and more recently has also expanded again to include retired London Fire Brigade dogs. LRPD has also secured a working partnership with Goddards Veterinary Group who are able to offer a % discount on fees relating to retired police dogs treatment and talks are ongoing with PDSA in efforts to access cost price medication for retired police dogs.

(remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 30/06/2022.

Responsibilities and

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination (other than that disclosed below *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Achievements against objectives set	Para 1.41	As a newly established charity our biggest aim was to meet the needs of the retired Police dogs of London requiring help and assistance financially to enable them to live their retirement in the best welfare position. We have been able to meet the needs of every application received thanks to ongoing fundraising on behalf of London Retired Police Dogs Trust.
Performance of fundraising activities against objectives set	Para 1.41	Every fundraising activity undertaken to date has been successful in securing donations. The £ outlay to Yumove for an order of dog supplements to be sold via our online shop has been the only item to date that has not yet made back its initial outlay cost, however this is an ongoing project.
