From 01/07/22
Period end date

Period start date To 30/06/23

Charity name: London Retired Police Dogs Trust

Charity registration number: 1188072

Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	To promote humane behaviour towards retired Police dogs by providing financial assistance to owners of retired Police dogs who have charge of animals that are in need of appropriate care and attention by reason of sickness, poor circumstances or welfare.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	London Retired Police Dogs Trust launched in November 2019 with ongoing fundraising through public events as a priority and then affected by the worldwide Covid pandemic we were forced to re-evaluate and find other ways of fundraising. Online Shop and Merchandise We have been successful in launching an online shop within our website www.lrpd.uk where we sell merchandise directly via the shop and also through third party volunteers and public facing events where possible following government guidance. Yearly LRPD Calendar Our yearly Calendar is produced and paid for by Metfriendly, supporters of LRPD, with all profits from sales going direct to the fund. Give as You Earn Initiative With the assistance of the Charities Aid Foundation we now successfully run a give as you earn scheme within the Metropolitan Police Service where employees can sign up to contribute a

		monthly donation direct from source to LRPD. Ongoing Volunteer Supporter Fundraising Activities Throughout the year supporters have undertaken a variety of events with fundraising on behalf of LRPD being the driving force, we have had volunteers run the Race to the King 50KM run, Great North Swim, London Marathon, Ride London, Open Days, Fetes, Fairs, Cake Sales, and Raffles to name a few. These are our staple fundraisers to date.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	In the initial Chaired AGM all trustees were introduced to the guidance on public benefit issued by the Charity Commission which is applicable when exercising any powers or duties to which the guidance would be relevant. This was reviewed again in the last AGM.

Policy on grant making	Para 1.38	Every application received for financial assistance is reviewed on an individual basis. Once the application has been reviewed by an independent vet and verified then the trustees discuss the individual application details and the current financial position of the charity and thus a decision on reward is reached. We are proud to be in a position to offer 100% of the claim amount requested in the majority of all claims to date.
Policy on social investment including program related investment	Para 1.38	N/A
Contribution made by volunteers	Para 1.38	Volunteers are integral to LRPD and have assisted in fundraising by various ways. Volunteers have shaken buckets, sold merchandise, held raffles and taken on enormous challenges all in efforts to assist us being able to meet applications for assistance relating to retired police dogs.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	Since the launch of London Retired Police Dogs Trust and registration as a registered charity LRPD have continued to grow. Despite fundraising efforts being drastically effected by the global pandemic LRPD has overcome obstacles and developed new and innovative ways to be able to continue to fundraise. We have awarded over £91,000 since our launch in direct response to applications received for assistance with regards to the welfare of retired police dogs up to 30/06/2023. (In this accounting period our award settlements totalled £53.282). The number of applications increases month on month as to be expected as a new charity with more people becoming aware of LRPD month on month. Since launch the London Retired Police Dogs Trust has grown to include retired City Of London Police Dogs and more recently has also expanded again to include retired London Fire Brigade dogs. LRPD has also secured a working partnership with Goddards Veterinary Group who are able to offer a % discount on fees relating to retired police dogs treatment.

On accounts for the year ended

30TH June 2023

Charity no
(if any) 1188072

Set out on pages

(remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 30/06/2023.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination (other than that disclosed below *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
