Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	At the end of the financial period, 1Hundred had no income, expenditure, or financial activity. The charity did not hold any funds or assets, and no liabilities were incurred during the period. As such, the financial position remains neutral, with a balance of £0. The trustees are mindful of the need to establish a sustainable financial base for the charity's future activities. Plans are being considered to secure funding through donations, grants, and other lawful means to enable the charity to begin operations in alignment with its objects. The charity's financial position will continue to be closely monitored to ensure compliance with regulatory requirements and readiness to support future initiatives.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	As of the end of the financial period, 1Hundred does not hold any reserves because the charity has not yet commenced operations or received any income. Once the charity becomes operational, reserves will be held to ensure financial stability and to support the charity's ability to fulfil its objects effectively. The trustees plan to establish a reserves policy based on the following principles: 1. Purpose of Reserves Reserves will be held to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provide a financial buffer to manage unforeseen expenses or fluctuations in income. • Ensure continuity of the charity's activities during periods of financial uncertainty. • Support planned investments in projects or initiatives that align with the charity's purposes. 2. Target Level of Reserves The level of reserves to be held will be determined based on: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The anticipated operating costs of

		the charity. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Risks associated with income streams and expenditure. • The need to maintain flexibility to respond to emergencies or opportunities. 3. Review of Reserves Policy The reserves policy will be reviewed annually to ensure it remains appropriate and aligned with the charity's financial position and strategic objectives. Currently, the trustees' priority is to secure funding and develop sustainable financial plans to enable the charity to commence its work and build reserves in accordance with this policy.
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	Since 1Hundred is currently dormant and has not engaged in any financial activities, the amount of reserves held at the end of the financial period is: £0 This reflects the fact that the charity has not received any income, made any expenditures, or accumulated any funds during the financial year.
Reasons for holding zero reserves	Para 1.22	1Hundred currently holds zero reserves because the charity is dormant and has not yet commenced operations. During the financial year, the charity did not receive any income or donations, nor did it incur any expenditure. As a result, no funds have been accumulated to establish reserves. The trustees are focused on securing initial funding and establishing financial stability to enable the charity to begin its work. Once operations commence, a reserves policy will be implemented to ensure the charity can sustain its activities and respond to financial uncertainties.
Details of fund materially in deficit	Para 1.24	At the end of the financial period, 1Hundred did not hold any funds, and there are no funds in deficit. The charity has not incurred any liabilities or financial commitments, as it has not yet commenced operations.
Explanation of any uncertainties about the	Para 1.23	There are currently no significant uncertainties regarding 1Hundred's ability to

charity continuing as a going concern		continue as a going concern. While the charity has not yet commenced operations or generated income, it has not incurred any liabilities or financial obligations that would jeopardize its ability to remain active. The trustees are confident that the charity's objectives are aligned with public benefit needs and that funding opportunities will be identified and secured in the future to support its planned activities. The trustees are committed to monitoring the charity's financial position closely and taking appropriate steps to ensure its sustainability.

Trustees' Responsibilities Statement

The trustees are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Annual Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

The law applicable to charities in England & Wales requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year that give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the incoming resources and application of resources for that period.

In preparing these financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently.
- Observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP.

- Make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent.
- State whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements.
- Prepare the financial statements on a going-concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operation.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose, with reasonable accuracy, the financial position of the charity at any time. These records enable them to ensure compliance with the Charities Act 2011, the Charity (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008, and the provisions of the trust deed.

They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Approved by the trustees on 31/12/2023 and signed on their behalf by:
