Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	'Objects' as stated in the Constitution are as follows: (A) the advancement of the education of musicians at the start of their professional careers, by bridging the gap between full- time study and employment, including (but not limited to) through: (i) the provision of career mentorship; (ii) the provision of musical and theatrical coaching and masterclasses; (iii) the provision of meaningful work opportunities and experience; and (iv) fostering the creation of valuable and long-lasting networks to support career development; (B) the advancement of education of the general public, including (but not limited to) through: (i) staging of accessible opera productions; (ii) production of supplementary materials which engage target audiences; and (C) the advancement of the arts, including (but not limited to) through: (i) the creation of immersive opera productions; and (ii) the development of new collaborative practices for creating and staging operas; (iii) reinventing the narratives of standard repertoire operas and collaborating with practitioners from other disciplines.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	During the period, the organisation produced two operatic/vocal gala concerts - 'Singin' in the Spring!' and Halloween Gala, both aimed at bringing classical singing to a broad audience through accessible programming, entertaining staging, and a highly engaging and immersive aesthetic. At both galas, tickets were offered at a reduced prices to students and young people. The organisation also hosted two masterclasses with world-renowned singers Susan Bullock and Della Jones - each one providing four emerging singers with the opportunity to work with teachers of the highest calibre and to present their audition

		repertoire to an audience. Tickets were offered to music students at nearby universities and London-wide conservatoires at a very discounted rate. Finally, the organisation produced a series of operatic gala events for the Earl's Court Community Trust as part of the Earl's Court Community's celebration of the Queen's Diamond Jubilee. These concerts were free to attend to residents of the Royal Borough of Kensington and Chelsea. Each event attracted an audience of over 300. They were hosted in the open air in garden squares in RBKC. Famous classical repertoire was presented in an easy to understand and approachable way to audiences as young as two years old as well as locals well into their 90s. These were funded through a grant from a local business - TLC. The organisation invested time in audience building and fundraising. Fundraising bids written in 2022 secured a total of £46,500 to be spent on projects taking place in the next accounting period - 2023. NB. one of these grants (for £1,500) was received by the charity at the end of the 2022 period. The Organisation grew its mailing list by over 100% during the period. This was largely due to the decision to invest in the part-time, self-employed contracting of a social media officer for the last three months of the period.

Policy on social investment including program related investment	Para 1.38	As stated above, it is a key objective of The Opera Makers CIO to promote: (A) the advancement of the education of musicians at the start of their professional careers, by bridging the gap between full-time study and employment; (B) the advancement of education of the general public; and (C) the advancement of the arts, and this central to the planning of all past, current and future activities.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	1) Production of Singin' in the Spring and Halloween Gala. These galas offered a supported opportunity for emerging artists to trial new repertoire and to boost their social media presence and to network build. Agents and industry professionals were present at both galas. The events included both mainstream and unusual repertoire and involved engaging introductions and staging - supporting the charity's objective of education of the public and promotion of the arts. 2) Hosting of two masterclasses - one with Susan Bullock and one with Della Jones Each masterclass offered four emerging artists the chance to work with a mentor and teacher at the top of their professional game and to gain invaluable insight into how to perform their repertoire. Singers at each masterclass went on to perform the arias workshopped in auditions, recordings, and galas. Masterclasses provide a fantastic opportunity for the public to experience how classical vocalists work and to garner intriguing insights into operatic roles and repertoire. 3) Producing a series of Jubilee galas for the Earl's Court Community Trust These concerts brought opera to the whole community and were an excellent way to broaden the art form's appeal and to educate audiences about opera. The concert series provided paid work for ten performers. It also provided the singers with experience of performing in a more

		unusual outdoor setting, including managing amplified vocals. 4) Fundraising Our fundraising efforts have ensured that in 2023 we will be able to bring immersive and evocative opera to a far broader audience; and further support the emerging artists with whom we work. 5) Profile building We have broadened our potential audience base significantly. This in turn gives us more scope for providing exposure and support to emerging artists, while making sure we are fulfilling our aim of bringing the art form of opera to more diverse, and wider audiences.

Achievements against objectives set	Para 1.41	See above for a discussion of how our achievements satisfied our objectives and benefitted the public, emerging artists and the advancement of the arts.

The Charity also secured pledges for major grants for use in 2023 from The Arts Council (£30,000), Cockayne Grants for the Arts (£10,000) and The Fenton Arts Trust (£4,000).
