

Simple ACTS Annual Report 2023-24

Simple Acts was established as a charity in 2019. The aim of the charity is the promotion of social inclusion amongst elderly people in London. The charity achieves this through the provision of cultural and well-being programmes. The resulting effects are to benefit the health and wellbeing of the elderly.

During 2023 the charity delivered a comprehensive programme of 20 social, well being and cultural events working with the United Anglo-Caribbean Society elders organisation based in the London Borough of Ealing and The Pepperpot Centre in the London Borough of Kensington & Chelsea. Further details can be found on our web site www.simpleacts.co.uk
