Keshorim

On accounts for the year ended 31 December 2025

Charity no (if any) 1188200

Set out on pages 3 and 4
(remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31/12/2025.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination (other than that disclosed below *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the charity ('the objects') are to advance such charitable purposes (according to the law of England and Wales) as the trustees see fit from time to time in particular but not limited to:

a) advancement of the Jewish religion for the public benefit including but not limited to providing educational opportunities to assist people in carrying out their religious beliefs, supporting and providing public rituals and facilitating projects which work towards better social cohesion and care of the less able. This work will be focussed within the UK.

b) The advancement of education, and in particular supporting educational institutions in the UK, USA and Israel by the making of grants or for example, organising labour at zero or subsidized costs.

c) The prevention and relief of poverty in UK, USA and Israel by providing financial support to existing charities who are set up for these purposes and assisting people directly who are facing poverty or are otherwise unable to meet their day to day living expenses.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Sponsored and hosted an educational event for one of its local projects.

Held a major fundraising campaign for the Pomegranate Juicery, supporting sick people and enabling the Juicery to take steps to set up its own Charity and further its charitable activities.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D Achievements and performance

Section D Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The major fundraising campaign in September 2025 was a great success, due to the generosity of many donors. Most of this amount was held at the year end and transferred to the Pomegranate Juicery's new Charity, Rimon, after the year end.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves	The Charity has minimal running costs (if no activity, these would be less than £1,000 per year) but reserves are maintained so that those costs can be met as required.
Details of any funds materially in deficit	No funds are in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

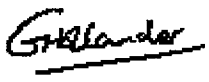

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

Section F Other optional information

Section G Declaration

The trustees declare that they have approved the trustees' report above.
