Trustees' Annual Report

Structure, governance and management

Charity Status and Structure

Chichester Marks Holocaust Memorial Day (CMHMD) is a charitable incorporated organisation governed by its constitution. It was registered by the Charity Commission in England and Wales on 2 March 2020. The trustees are the members of the Charity. In the event of a winding up the members have no liability to contribute to the payment of CMHMD's liabilities.

Recruitment, Appointment and Training of Trustees

Trustees are recruited from those who share CMHMD's aims and aspirations and must be able to bring a breadth and depth of experience and skills to the trustee body. Prior to appointment trustees are briefed on CMHMD's activities and on appointment complete Fit and Proper Person forms and Declarations of Interests. All the trustees take seriously the obligation to maintain their knowledge.

Risk Management

The trustees have identified the major risks to which they believe CMHMD is exposed and systems have been established to minimise those risks. The risks are reviewed at each trustees' meeting. The principal risks relate to contracts for performances produced to inform and educate the public on matters concerning the Holocaust and genocides.

Governance

The overall responsibility for CMHMD rests with the trustees who meet regularly to both oversee governance and to make operating decisions.

The trustees endeavour to apply the Charity Governance Code, including the updated Code published on 8 December 2020, and the Nolan principles (selflessness, integrity, objectivity, accountability, openness, honesty and leadership). Furthermore believing that corruption, bribery and unfair actions hamper development and impede progress they insist on integrity in all CMHMD's activities.

Objectives and activities

CMHMD seeks to both advance the education of the public in the history and experience of the Holocaust and other genocides and, to promote tolerance by local engagement in education and the community.

CMHMD is the successor to an ad hoc committee which had worked to mark Holocaust Memorial Day with activities, including screenings, talks and concerts.

In January 2015 the committee marked Holocaust Memorial Day with a tribute to former Chichester Member of Parliament John Abel Smith, who campaigned for Religious and Political Rights in the mid-1800's.

For January 2016, the same team, now working with the University of Chichester's Music Department and Chichester Cathedral, organised the production of the opera 'Last Train to Tomorrow' conducted by its composer Carl Davis.

Working with the Department of History & Politics at the University of Chichester, the team organised a film screening of 'Conspiracies – the Evil and the Good' at Chichester's New Park Cinema on 27 January 2017.

Performances of the Opera PUSH, composed by Howard Moody, took place at Chichester Cathedral on 27 January 2018 and at St Paul's Church, Chichester on 11 April 2018.

To mark Holocaust Memorial Day PUSH was performed at The Speaker's Apartments, Westminster on 28 January 2019. The invitation only audience was a cross-party selection of MP's, Rabbis, and senior members of Jewish and refugee groups.

Holocaust Memorial Day 2020 was marked with performances of PUSH at Chichester Festival Theatre's Minerva Theatre and, at Westbourne House School, in aid of Sussex Snowdrop Trust.

Covid lockdown regulations prevented planned in person events and so these were replaced by an on line Memorial Service on 27 January 2021, which included a tribute by Gillian Keegan, Chichester's sitting Member of Parliament, to John Abel Smith, Member of Parliament for Chichester from 1831-1859.

On 14 January 2022 CMHMD brought to Chichester Festival Theatre's Minerva Theatre, Sir Michael Morpurgo's the Mozart Question, a holocaust based story narrated by Sir Michael and Alison Reid interwoven with music played by Daniel Pioro and The Storyteller's Ensemble. Later in the month the film Waiting For Anya, based on Sir Michael Morpurgo's story of the same name, was shown for schools at Chichester's New Park Cinema.

A conversation on 17 June 2022 with the author and historian Dr Helen Fry was held before a sell out audience as part of The Festival of Chichester.

On 26 and 27 January 2023 the acclaimed film Where is Anne Frank was shown for schools at Chichester's New Park Cinema alongside related workshops for the schools and on 27 January 2023 David Nott, the surgeon noted for his work in war and conflict zones, was interviewed by author Kate Mosse at Chichester Festival Theatre's Minerva Theatre.

Holocaust survivor Steven Frank told his story on 22 June 2023, as part of The Festival of Chichester.

Events in 2024 were:

- 27 January 2024 Women Who Resisted, a one woman show by novelist and historian Kate Mosse, which celebrated extraordinary brave women of World War II.
- January 2024 showings of the film Where is Anne Frank for schools alongside related workshops.
- 19 July 2024, as part of The Festival of Chichester, Peter Lantos told of his experiences under the title a Childhood Journey to Belsen.

Plans for future periods

In line with the trustees intention to continue to stage public events and performances to educate both young and old events were staged in January and July 2025 and other activities are planned for 2026.

Public benefit

The trustees have paid due regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit and strongly believe in the public benefit of CMHMD's activities.

Volunteers

Almost all of the activities of CMHMD are undertaken by volunteers. No record is kept of the time given on a voluntary basis but without this contribution to CMHMD it would not function.

Financial review

The income from tickets sold for charitable events held during the year totalled £13,493 (2023:£6,883). The event direct costs totalled £3,995 (2023:£6,062) and there was therefore a surplus of £9,498 (2023:£821) from the staging of the charitable activities. This surplus enabled the trustees to commit to the costs of staging the opera Last Train to Tomorrow at Chichester Festival Theatre's Minerva Theatre in January 2025.

All events are held in furtherance of the charity's aims of advancing the education of the public in the history and experience of the Holocaust and other genocides and to promote tolerance and for that reason ticket prices are set at a level which will cover the costs without excluding those with limited financial means.

In 2021 an individual known to CMHMD lent £2,500 to the Charity unsecured and interest free. This loan was repaid in February 2024.

Reserves policy

The trustees believe unrestricted reserves are needed to fund and underwrite major events. A full reserves policy is being developed.

Pay policy and procedures

Trustees do not receive any payment or benefits for their work either as trustees or as volunteers and there are no employees.

Investment policy

Funds not required for current needs may be invested in investments of any kind at the absolute discretion of the trustees.

Fundraising

Raising funds for CMHMD's activities is vital. Although, as a small charity, CMHMD is not required to follow fundraising regulations it will at all times abide by the spirit of those regulations.

Trustees' responsibilities statement

The trustees are responsible for preparing the trustees' report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

In preparing these financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- i. select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- ii. observe the methods and principles in the applicable Charities SORP;
- iii. make judgments and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- iv. prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operation.

The trustees are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the charity's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The trustees are responsible for the maintenance and integrity of the corporate and financial information included in the charity's website.

Legislation in the United Kingdom governing the preparation and dissemination of financial statements may differ from legislation in other jurisdictions.

The trustees' annual report was approved on 21st October 2025 and signed on behalf of the trustees by:

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Chichester Marks Holocaust Memorial Day

I report on my examination of the accounts of Chichester Marks Holocaust Memorial Day (the Charity) for the year ended 31 December 2024.

This report is made solely to the trustees, as a body, in accordance with the Charities Act 2011. My work has been undertaken so that I might state to the trustees those matters I am required to state to them in an independent examiner's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, I do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the trustees as a body, for any work, for this report, or for the opinions I have formed.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the Charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act"). You consider that an audit is not required for the year under section 144 (2) of the Act and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Act;
- follow the procedures laid down in general Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act; and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of the independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the Charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination no matter has come to my attention:

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Act; and to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Act have not been met, or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Signed
