Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To provide free-of-charge education services, workshops and seminars, for the relief of those in need by reason of them being parents, families or carers of disabled, severely or terminally ill children, seeking to alleviate personal health related issues that may arise from their caring roles.

As the charity's ability to provide support during the pandemic 2020/21 was limited, the focus has been on building a relationship with The Rainbow Trust, providing health and well-being advice, support and seminars to members of various teams. This was facilitated through one-to-one sessions as well as group workshops via Zoom.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

As the charity ability to provide support during the pandemic 2020/21 has limited we focused on building a relationship with The Rainbow Trust that provided health and well-being advice, support and seminars to members of various teams. This was facilitated solely through one-to-one sessions as well as group workshops via Zoom.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

At this moment we do not have funds to keep in reserve. However, we will consider the issue of reserves and develop a policy that is proportionate to the needs of the charity.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

None

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

To provide free-of-charge education services, workshops and seminars, for the relief of those in need by reason of them being parents, families or carers of disabled, severely or terminally ill children, seeking to alleviate personal health related issues that may arise from their caring roles.

Working with parents and carers to develop healthier lifestyle habits therefore increasing their ability to manage the daily challenges most go through on a regular basis. All coaching techniques are encouraging the recipient to understand what will work best for them. They are always in control of how they adopt and adapt what is most appropriate to them.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To provide free-of-charge education services, workshops and seminars, for the relief of those in need by reason of them being parents, families or carers of disabled, severely or terminally ill children, seeking to alleviate personal health related issues that may arise from their caring roles.

The focus has been on working with families providing health and well-being advice, support and seminars. This was facilitated through one-to-one sessions as well as video conferencing.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

As the charity ability to provide support during 2021/2022 was affected due to limited funds, we have worked on building relationships with local community groups

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

At this moment we do not have funds to keep in reserve. However, we will consider the issue of reserves and develop a policy that is proportionate to the needs of the charity.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

None

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.
