Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

- (1) To advance education for the benefit of refugees, the poor, the illiterate, and the general public by means of, but not exclusively, the provision or assistance in the provision, by other organisations, of educational resources, activities and facilities, such as vocational training centres and mobile learning programmes, using technology, digital tools and film media for the benefit of the said persons;
- (2) To promote sustainable development for the benefit of the public by the preservation, conservation and the protection of the environment and the prudent use of resources, the relief of poverty and the improvement of the conditions of life in socially and economically disadvantaged communities, and the promotion of sustainable means of achieving economic growth and regeneration, such that sustainable development means development which meets the needs of the present without compromising the ability of future generations to meet their own needs.
- (3) To relieve sickness and to preserve good physical and mental health among persons in need, by means of, but not exclusively, the provision or assistance in the provision, by other organisations, of equipment, medicines, facilities and education on the prevention of disease, nutritional deficiency and maintaining good health for public benefit.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The trustees have held meetings virtually, online- none of us have had the chance to meet physically yet. The charity has created a website, www.unifiedhuman.org. We have identified projects we are supporting, in alignment with the charity's constitution.

We have set up a virtual online series of programmes, beginning in December 2021, through our website and social media platforms to educate the public about sustainability, climate change, cultural sustainability, in general, and specifically connected with the projects we are supporting.

We are in the process of establishing ourselves as a working team with regards to our work.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
