Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	The Cancer Club is dedicated to bringing men with advanced stage cancers together to enhance their wellbeing. Our mission is to get men talking through an online community and by taking them to a variety of sporting events where they can connect over common experiences and gain emotional support from others "in the same boat"
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	Organising communication channels, attendance at meetings and sporting events in order to provide support, sharing of experiences and support through common experiences. The community in particular helps individuals share common experiences as they battle their cancer. The projects have been a combination of fund-raising events (typically sponsored activities such as races, attended by members, family friends and others) and sporting activities (spectator or participants) which again helps promote the charity and encourage more members.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	The trustees confirm that they have at all times considered and adopted the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on Public Benefit.
