Section B                      Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document (eg. trust deed, constitution)	CIO – Foundation constitution
How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	Constitution
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	(a) Apart from the first charity trustees, every trustee must be appointed for a term of three years by a resolution passed at a properly convened meeting of the charity trustees.  (b) In selecting individuals for appointment as charity trustees, the charity trustees must have regard to the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of the CIO.

Section C                      Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the CIO are the advancement of Islamic faith for the public benefit by the provision of a burial service specifically for but not limited to those who follow the Muslim faith together with advice and support in relation to the procedures and practices relating to the burial of the deceased for the West Yorkshire area and beyond.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The charity provides the services and items necessary in order to achieve their objects in the governing document.

Charity Commission requires the trustees of a charity to:

- Select suitable accounting policies, apply them consistently, make judgement and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless there is a reason to believe that the charity will not continue for the foreseeable future.

The Trustees are responsible for the keeping of proper accounting records, which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charity Act 2011. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence to take reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Section D                      Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the period

The charity was able to raise funds to help them with their charitable objects.

Section E                      Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity holds £5,000 as reserves in order to carry its objects when income is low.
