Over this year we worked with 14 volunteers who were part of our “Organising Team” and who had specific roles in aiding the charity which include: communications and marketing, facilitating workshops, child care and supporting with other elements of project delivery. Our volunteers included:

- A group of committed volunteers in our facilitators’ team who helped run a total of 50 sessions in Hackney. In total, our volunteers offered 350 hours to session delivery, of which 4 were for sessions delivered online (2 sessions), 288 hours were for sessions delivered in-person (48 sessions). Volunteers also committed time to attend organising and coordinating meetings that total an average of 58 hours.
- A group of committed Communications Volunteers who have managed our social media, spending an average of 2 hours per week, and a total of 102 hours over the course of the year.
- Additionally, English speaking participants at our sessions are not counted as volunteers so are not included in this calculation, but give supportive help to our group for approximately 2 hours per week.

We estimate the financial value of the voluntary time given to the organisation to be approximately £6,742 (excluding time given by English speaking participants).

Volunteers are an important part of Xenia’s work. Over this year we worked with 8 volunteers who were part of our “Organising Team” and who had specific roles in aiding the charity which include: communications and marketing, facilitating workshops, writing blogs, supporting with organisational work. Our volunteers included:

- A group of committed volunteers in our facilitators’ team who helped run a total of 56 sessions, online and in person. In total, our volunteers offered 298 hours to session delivery, of which 190 were for sessions delivered online (38 sessions), and 108 hours were for sessions delivered in-person (18 sessions).
- A group of committed Communications Volunteers who have managed our social media and blogs, spending an average of 2 hours per week, and a total of 104 hours over the course of the year
- Two Outreach volunteers, one of which also acted as a Covid Community champion for part of the year and together committed approximately 2hrs per week (52 x 2 =104 hours)
- Additionally, English speaking participants at our sessions are not counted as volunteers so are not included in this calculation but give supportive help to our group for approximately 1.5-2 hours per week (1.5 hours/online session, 2 hours/in-person session).

Responsibilities and basis of report

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31/03/2023.

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
2. the accounts do not accord with the accounting records.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Trustees' Annual Report for the period

From Period start date 01-Apr-22 To 31-Mar-23 Period end date

Charity name: Xenia

Charity registration number: 1188924

Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	(1) Promote social inclusion for the public benefit amongst women who may be socially excluded on the grounds of their gender, ethnic origin, religion, belief or creed, educational or skills attainment, parental situation or marital status, immigration status or language ability. (2) Promote equality and diversity in particular equality between women and men for the benefit of the public.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	Migrant women learning English (sometimes called learners) attend welcoming workshops alongside other fluent English speaking women (sometimes called speakers). These weekly workshops take place in community spaces in London (and virtually via Zoom during the pandemic), primarily delivered in partnership with the Hackney Museum. Travel expenses and childcare are provided for women in need of them. Xenia provides training to other small groups looking to develop the same Charity model, this is still under development.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	All Trustees have signed the following declaration on appointment: - Am willing to act as a charity trustee in respect of Xenia and am fully aware of the charity's purposes; - Am not disqualified from acting as a trustee (it is an offence to act as a trustee while disqualified); and - Understand the responsibilities involved in running a charity and have read the Charity Commissioners' document: The Essential Trustee

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	This year we have delivered 56 workshops to 122 women who are either learning English or who can speak fluent English (sometimes called speakers and learners). Due to Covid 19 these took place in a combination of virtual online/on the phone sessions and in-person sessions. We provided expenses where appropriate - for example in place of travel expenses we provided data packages in agreement with our grant funders. Participants include refugees, migrants, asylum seekers and long term UK citizens. We have supported our participants to practice English, meet new people and learn about other cultures. During a year which has seen many people struggling with social isolation, Xenia has also provided a welcome social occasion for many. Additionally, we have signposted people to other services when their needs cannot be met by our charity.

Achievements against objectives set	Para 1.41	Delivery: Our objectives this year were to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Deliver weekly workshops to women in Hackney</li> <li>- Support these women to connect, share and learn with each other</li> <li>- Support our staff, volunteers and participants to gradually transition back to in-person delivery</li> <li>- Deliver some training sessions to share our work more widely.</li> </ul> We have been successful in achieving these aims. Despite Covid 19, we continued to run workshops, although they were online. We engaged 122 participants, many of whom come to our workshops regularly. Each week we welcome 10-15 participants to our sessions. We successfully managed to deliver a very gradual and carefully considered transition from online/over the phone sessions to in-person sessions, always keeping in mind the health and safety of our participants, volunteers and staff. Our projects delivered; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 50 weekend workshops to women from a very wide range of backgrounds, many with low level English.</li> <li>• 6 additional walking clubs with a focus on exploring Hackney and keeping active</li> <li>• Our evaluation of the projects through case studies and surveys has shown that women who attend Xenia activities feel more connected and less isolated. Many also state that their English levels are improving and that they have a greater sense of belonging to the local community.</li> </ul> Alongside our main delivery, our objectives for this year included improving our systems and processes. We have been successful in doing so with a number of new processes, including researching, selecting and using: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• A new system tracking time spent on tasks by staff</li> <li>• A new CRM system</li> </ul> Additionally, to support the learning and evaluation of our work we: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• ran 1 training course about our work for a partner organisation in Scotland.</li> <li>• conducted a feasibility study that investigated how to grow the organisation and started making plans for this process to start next financial year.</li> </ul>

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	At year-end 22-23, Xenia realised a surplus of £30,759.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	Reserves provide financial protection against drops in income. We intend to maintain the Xenia level of reserves, which is at least equivalent to 3 months' worth of running costs (25% of total annual operating expenditure). However, we intend to build it up overtime to reach 50% of total annual operating expenditure based on any surplus realised at future financial year-ends. These funds should only be used in case of significant financial difficulties and funding shortfall, which could drastically affect operations. Trustees must authorise money out of these reserves in writing. This policy will be reviewed once a year
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	Xenia holds a total reserves of £43,973.28 as of 31 st March 2023.
Reasons for holding zero reserves	Para 1.22	n/a
Details of fund materially in deficit	Para 1.24	n/a
Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern	Para 1.23	Some uncertainty still resides around the current Covid-19 outbreak and rise in costs of living following a high inflation period, which could continue to affect funding opportunities, as well as individual donations and grants for future activities. However, Xenia is working towards diversifying its income streams and fundraising activities in order to mitigate this risk.
