Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

We created a community of professionals and collaborators who facilitated our online webinars. Through our webinars we educated the public about self-advocacy, emotional impact of pregnancy loss on the family, empowerment tools to help families speak up and participate fully in decision-making about their health and treatment around baby loss, by ensuring that their decision and voice are honoured .

We created and produced over 150 printed copies of Self advocacy tool kit. These publications are available free to download online, and printed copies were distributed to families who experienced pregnancy at the annual bereavement day at Queen Elizabeth, Queen Mothers Hospital, Margate. Further copies were distributed to various organisations supporting those impacting by pregnancy loss, including the Fertility Support Awareness and Aid Initiative.

We have created 8 webinars focused on self-advocacy, self-awareness, with 8 professionals and experts . In addition, we've had the opportunity to raise awareness through podcast interviews, awareness campaign, partnerships, steering groups, engagement committees and empowering articles. We have utilised our social media to raise further awareness across, facebook, website, twitter, youtube, Instagram and tiktok. We over 2000 views across our social media platform.
