The Report of the Trustees for the year ended 28 February 2025

Introduction

Humanity Aid is a humanitarian organisation responding to the Prevention Or Relief Of Poverty General Charitable Purposes Education/training Overseas Aid/famine Relief

Governing Document

Humanity Aid, is constituted as a charitable trust registered with the Charity Commission on the 14th April 2020 under charity number 1189030.

Message from the Trustees

The Board of Trustees directs and oversees the organization in accordance with its statutory obligations. Focusing on strategic planning and governance, the Board sets out priorities and objectives. It evaluates our performance and the process of our work to alleviate poverty and suffering, and approves relevant new policies and procedures. The Board appraises the Executive Management Team and is involved in making appointments to and dismissals from the team. The Board of Trustees works with key stakeholders and makes sure that we satisfy our regulatory requirements as a charity. The Board of Trustees are satisfied with the performance of Humanity Aid during the year and the position at 28 February 2025.

There are four trustees.

- Yasmin Khan - Chairman
- Lynda Moussaoui – Treasurer
- Rizwana Nisar- Trustee
- Tasneem Khan- Trustee

The trustees, who are also the company directors of Humanity Aid, are responsible for preparing the trustees' report. This includes the group strategic report and the financial statements, preparing these in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice). Company law requires our trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year. They must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company and the group, and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including income and expenditure, of the charitable group for that period. As trustees of Humanity Aid, we feel blessed and proud of the commendable work, we as an organization have undertaken over the year.

Going Concern

The Board consider that Humanity Aid is in a strong position to continue its activities during the coming year, and that the charity's assets are adequate to fulfil its obligations. The Trustees believe there are no material uncertainties that call into doubt our ability to continue as a going concern. The annual financial statements have therefore been prepared on the basis that the charity is a going concern.

Public benefit

We develop strategic plans to make certain that we deliver maximum public benefit and achieve our strategic objectives, which fall under purposes defined by the Charities Act 2011. The trustees have carefully considered the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit in setting our objectives and planning our activities.

Objectives, Aims and Activities of the Charity

The objectives of the charity are set out in the charity's trust deed and are summarised as follows:

The relief of financial hardship of people living in any part of the world who are the victims of natural or other kinds of disaster or trouble by providing such persons with goods and other services to support their basic needs of education, medical, food, clothing and shelter.

Our strategies for the achievement of these objectives are to identify countries or areas where emergency or priority aid is required and then to establish projects that will help meet their needs. We then fundraise for those projects and establish them on the ground with our partners with the help of volunteers. We assist and monitor in the delivery of those projects on the ground through selected regional partners.

Activities during the year

In 2024, the trustees consider that the services and activities carried out are in line with the objectives of the charity, as summarised below, not only deliver aid to those in need overseas but also provide benefit to people in this country by allowing them to meet their moral and religious wishes and obligations to help those less fortunate around the world.

How our activities deliver public benefit

Our main activities and who we try to help are described below. All our charitable activities focus on the relief of financial hardship of people living in any part of the world who are the victims of natural or other kinds of disaster or trouble by providing such persons with goods and other services to support their basic needs of education, medical, food, clothing and shelter.

Ramadan Appeal

Our main month for donations is the Islamic month of Ramadan (month of fasting), which fell in the month of March to April in 2024. We supplied Food Packs to 100's of needy families in Pakistan.

Due Diligence

Humanity Aid carefully selects non-political partners from the voluntary sector to ensure the right partners are selected to implement projects on the ground. Also, we carry other due diligence and criminal checks by talking to local partners, obtaining information about them and signing collaboration agreements.

Humanity Aid also has partner ranging from small community support groups to national alliances along with our international networks.

We would like to thank all our existing partners Roshan Pakistan Trust and Saima Welfare Trust both in Pakistan for their continuous support.

Future Plans

We have had a very tough year with the pandemic, some of our volunteers and Trustees have lost family members. We are aiming to continue our work through our grass root volunteer base to help the poor and suffering around the world. We want to continue our work in Pakistan and also support local refugees, homeless and needy in UK.

We are hoping to expand to provide aid in more countries such as Bangladesh, Burma, Gaza, and Yemen.

Structure, Governance and Management

The trustees meet together as a body on a regular basis and are responsible for all decisions taken in relation to running and activities of the charity. The trustees continue to be actively involved in the running of projects supported by a large number of volunteers.

The charity trustees are responsible for the general control and management of the charity. The trustees give their time freely and receive no remuneration or other financial benefits.

The current trustees will be working with its advisers in the coming year to establish a process of induction and training of any new and existing trustees in accordance with its trust deed.

Our aim is to provide international support responding to human sufferings in emergency and disaster situations all over the world regardless of race, gender, ethnicity, class and religion.

Recruitment and appointment of new trustees

The process involves determining the optimum skills, knowledge and experience mix for the: current operational climate and needs, identifying potential members, promoting and explaining the activities of the Board to potential members. Quality, characteristics and qualifications are decided upon when selecting members of the Board of Trustees.

The existing trustees are responsible for the recruitment of new trustees and will appoint additional trustees as and when required.

Potential Trustees are interviewed by at least two existing trustees, obtain two references and once accepted. We are at present looking to add to our trustee board

Relationships between the charity and related parties

The induction of new Trustees would include an explanation of the function of the Board of Trustees and appointing a mentor for the new member to the Board of Trustees. An overview of the organisation and its activities is provided. On-going appropriate training is recommended.

Risk Management

Humanity Aid has visible, clear and easily accessible whistleblowing procedures. The Trustees take their responsibilities towards staff, donors, and beneficiaries very seriously. An important aspect of discharging these responsibilities involves the identification of management of all potential risks that might compromise staff, resources, or ability to deliver programmes.

The Charity, therefore has ultimate duty to regularly identify and review the risks to which the Charity is exposed, and ensure that appropriate controls are in place to provide reasonable assurance against fraud, malicious acts, and error. The Trustees, along with the CEO and the Senior Staff actively review these risks on a regular basis.

We operate in many unstable countries across the world, in challenging circumstances. To make and mitigate the associated risks the trustees assess the risks the charity faces on an ongoing basis and manage them throughout the year. Memorandum of understanding are arranged with local partners abroad, to ensure that risks are better controlled and managed. The trustees are satisfied that systems are in place, or arrangements are in hand, to manage the risks that have been identified. In particular, the trustees are aware of the risks associated with providing humanitarian aid in a conflict zone or high risk countries.

We also have due diligence processes in place to monitor partners, we put in place a Memorandum of Understanding, and obtain references, and where possible for trustees to visit they will go and check making sure all in order) volunteers, fundraisers and delivery of aid.

We receive regular reporting, documentation of work done and agreements, charity visits, beneficiaries feedback, references, organisations who have worked with partners. Furthermore, prescribed entity checks. Online checks regarding concerns. Feedback from volunteers, aid agency workers, other agencies and beneficiaries.

Risks are complex, due to the nature of the work we carry out. They are assessed on the basis of their likelihood and potential impact, which would allow the implementation of mitigation strategies to manage these risks.

Last year we instructed an external expert to conduct an internal audit review of all our policies, practices and procedures. The risk register is reviewed regularly.

The Principal risks to the charity have been identified as:

Strategic

Reputation

One of the most valuable assets of any charity is its reputation. It is vitally important that we do all we can to meet the expectations of our donors, beneficiaries, supporters and other organisations that we partner with. To protect the charity against reputational damage, we implement the following:

Fraud, Corruption and Bribery

1. We work very hard to ensure that integrity and transparency are embedded in all our policies and procedures. Conflict of interest; Anti-Bribery; Anti-Terrorism and Anti-Money Laundering policies are introduced and closely monitored.
2. Senior-level representation on many important forums and influential fronts, to ensure positive visibility, including a strong media presence.

Operational

Risks in this area include physical risks to our personnel and volunteers, and risks compromising the continuation of project delivery. To mitigate against such risks, the Charity has taken the following actions:

1. Developing Standard Operating Procedures for common processes to protect against loss of key staff or volunteers;
2. Improving the quality and the scope of training, to disseminate skills and good practice within the organisation, and to ensure staff safety and wellbeing;
3. Regular review of key systems and procedures to improve and strengthen the internal policies and communication processes, thus maintaining a clear structure of delegated authority and control.
4. Applying robust due diligence policy in our dealings with donors, and the use of "Thomson Reuters" tool to assess the suitability of personnel;
5. Adopting clear processes to review and assess our performance management system on the ground;
6. All programmes have up-to-date security policies, which include the provision of regular comprehensive security briefings and assessments, in response to rapid changes in the political and situation.

Cultural and Behaviour

The charity monitors and learns lessons for peer organisations as such as has focused on ensuring it develops the right culture and behaviour as the charity grows.

1. As such we have undertaken a review of policy and procedures to ensure they are 'fit for purpose.
2. A programme of regular training for all staff.

The Trustees, are, therefore, satisfied that adequate systems and procedures are in place to manage and minimize exposure to identified risks.

The contribution of volunteers

Humanity Aid is completely based around its volunteers. The trustees have developed a large pool of approximately regular 40 volunteers. Without these passionate network of volunteers, it would not be possible for Humanity Aid to exist or continue its operations.

The trustees are extremely grateful to the extraordinary volunteers and members of the public who have supported our appeals and have fundraised in their spare time to help those in need, without whom the charity would not have been able to deliver aid to the many thousands of people that we have been able to assist thus far.

Financial Review

Policies on reserves

Humanity Aid has raises funds for specific projects (restricted funds) and funds which are not specified for a particular project (unrestricted funds) which would be utilised where most required and applied at the discretion of the trustees to further the charity's purposes.

A significant proportion of this income consists of restricted funds for specific projects - the majority of which constitutes short-term aid responding to the basic needs (including food, water, clothing, shelter and primary education) of beneficiaries in areas blighted by conflict and or devastated by natural disaster. Given the charity's present level and nature of activities, the unrestricted funds not committed or invested in tangible and intangible fixed assets ("the free reserves") held by the charity should be £30,000. At this level, the trustees feel that they would be able to continue the current activities of the charity in the event of a significant drop in funding. Humanity Aid depends on unrestricted funds for its long-term developmental programmes, particularly in regions which have not received media coverage in recent months and years which has led to increased demand on unrestricted funds.

In light of this and the donor-giving patterns of recent years, Humanity Aid has continued with its plan initiated in 2020:

1. Increase our capacity to work in emergency zones.
2. Simultaneously consolidate the geographical and thematic spread of long-term projects and projects offices.
3. Develop closer working relationships with grass-roots organizations in countries where we carry out projects
4. Diversify the donor base.

These measures, which will bring further efficiencies and savings, but still allow us to increase our reach to beneficiaries, will also be instrumental to the success of this plan.

In the event of a significant drop in funding, the trustees feel that they would be able to continue the current activities of the charity through the availability of reserves. It would obviously be necessary to consider how the funding would be replaced as activities change. The charity needs to be able to respond quickly to appeals for the relief of suffering in varied communities around the world and is presently achieving this aim, whilst further aiming to increase its unrestricted reserves position throughout each subsequent year.

The Statement of Financial Activities show incoming resources for the year of a revenue and realised nature of £18,984.00 a majority of the expenditure is spent on delivering the charitable activities as stated in the Charity's aims and objectives.

Availability and adequacy of assets of each of the funds

The board of trustees are satisfied that the charity's assets in each fund are available and adequate to fulfil its obligations in respect of each fund.

Transactions and Financial position

The financial statements are set out on pages 11

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Statement of Recommended Practice and Section IA of FRS102 the trustees consider the financial performance by the charity during the year to have been satisfactory.

Trustees' Responsibilities

The trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities Act 2011 and the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008. Notwithstanding the explicit requirement in the extant statutory regulations, the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008, to prepare the financial statements in accordance with the Statement of Recommended Practice and Section 1A of FRS102.

In particular, charity law requires the Trustees, if they prepare accounts on an accrual's basis, to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity as at the end of the financial year and of the surplus or deficit of the charity. In preparing those financial statements the Trustees are required to: -

To prepare the accounts in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law).

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently.
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business.
- state whether applicable accounting standards and statements of recommended practice have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements.

The law requires that the trustees must not approve the accounts unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the surplus or deficit of the charity for the year.

The Trustees are also responsible for maintaining adequate accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and which are sufficient to show and explain the charity's transactions and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with regulations made under the charity legislation. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities. The Trustees are also responsible for the contents of the Trustees' report, and the accountant preparing the accounts has no responsibilities in relation to the Trustees' report.

Audit Exemption

For the financial year in question the company was entitled to exemption under section 477 of the Companies Act 2006 and Charities Act 2011.

No members have required the company to obtain an audit of its accounts for the year in question in accordance with section 476 of the Companies Act 2006 and Charities Act 2011.

The directors acknowledge their responsibility for complying with the requirements of the Act with respect to the accounting records and for the preparation of accounts.

This report was approved by the board of trustees 27/12/2025

Report of the Independent Examiner to the trustees

on the accounts of the Charity for the year ended 28 February 2025

We report on the financial statements of the charity on pages 11 to 18

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 28/02/2025.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

In carrying out my examination,

I confirm that there are no other matters to which your attention should be drawn to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Policies on reserves

Humanity Aid has raises funds for specific projects (restricted funds) and funds which are not specified for a particular project (unrestricted funds) which would be utilised where most required and applied at the discretion of the trustees to further the charity's purposes.

A significant proportion of this income consists of restricted funds for specific projects - the majority of which constitutes short-term aid responding to the basic needs (including food, water, clothing, shelter and primary education) of beneficiaries in areas blighted by conflict and or devastated by natural disaster. Given the charity's present level and nature of activities, the unrestricted funds not committed or invested in tangible and intangible fixed assets ("the free reserves") held by the charity should be £30,000. At this level, the trustees feel that they would be able to continue the current activities of the charity in the event of a significant drop in funding. Humanity Aid depends on unrestricted funds for its long-term developmental programmes, particularly in regions which have not received media coverage in recent months and years which has led to increased demand on unrestricted funds.

In light of this and the donor-giving patterns of recent years, Humanity Aid has continued with its plan initiated in 2020:

1. Increase our capacity to work in emergency zones.
2. Simultaneously consolidate the geographical and thematic spread of long-term projects and projects offices.
3. Develop closer working relationships with grass-roots organizations in countries where we carry out projects
4. Diversify the donor base.

These measures, which will bring further efficiencies and savings, but still allow us to increase our reach to beneficiaries, will also be instrumental to the success of this plan.

In the event of a significant drop in funding, the trustees feel that they would be able to continue the current activities of the charity through the availability of reserves. It would obviously be necessary to consider how the funding would be replaced as activities change. The charity needs to be able to respond quickly to appeals for the relief of suffering in varied communities around the world and is presently achieving this aim, whilst further aiming to increase its unrestricted reserves position throughout each subsequent year.

The Statement of Financial Activities show incoming resources for the year of a revenue and realised nature of £19,300.00 a majority of the expenditure is spent on delivering the charitable activities as stated in the Charity's aims and objectives.

Availability and adequacy of assets of each of the funds

The board of trustees are satisfied that the charity's assets in each fund are available and adequate to fulfil its obligations in respect of each fund.

Transactions and Financial position

The financial statements are set out on pages 11

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Statement of Recommended Practice and Section IA of FRS102 the trustees consider the financial performance by the charity during the year to have been satisfactory.

Trustees' Responsibilities

The trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities Act 2011 and the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008. Notwithstanding the explicit requirement in the extant statutory regulations, the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008, to prepare the financial statements in accordance with the Statement of Recommended Practice and Section 1A of FRS102.

In particular, charity law requires the Trustees, if they prepare accounts on an accrual's basis, to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity as at the end of the financial year and of the surplus or deficit of the charity. In preparing those financial statements the Trustees are required to: -

To prepare the accounts in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law).

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently.
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business.
- state whether applicable accounting standards and statements of recommended practice have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements.

The law requires that the trustees must not approve the accounts unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the surplus or deficit of the charity for the year.

The Trustees are also responsible for maintaining adequate accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and which are sufficient to show and explain the charity's transactions and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with regulations made under the charity legislation. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities. The Trustees are also responsible for the contents of the Trustees' report, and the accountant preparing the accounts has no responsibilities in relation to the Trustees' report.

Audit Exemption

For the financial year in question the company was entitled to exemption under section 477 of the Companies Act 2006 and Charities Act 2011.

No members have required the company to obtain an audit of its accounts for the year in question in accordance with section 476 of the Companies Act 2006 and Charities Act 2011.

The directors acknowledge their responsibility for complying with the requirements of the Act with respect to the accounting records and for the preparation of accounts.

This report was approved by the board of trustees 27/12/2024

Report of the Independent Examiner to the trustees

on the accounts of the Charity for the year ended 29 February 2024

We report on the financial statements of the charity on pages 11 to 18

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 29/02/2024.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

In carrying out my examination,

I confirm that there are no other matters to which your attention should be drawn to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

The Report of the Trustees for the year ended 01 March 2023

Introduction

Humanity Aid is a humanitarian organisation responding to the Prevention Or Relief Of Poverty General Charitable Purposes Education/training Overseas Aid/famine Relief

Governing Document

Humanity Aid, is constituted as a charitable trust registered with the Charity Commission on the 14th April 2020 under charity number 1189030.

Message from the Trustees

The Board of Trustees directs and oversees the organization in accordance with its statutory obligations. Focusing on strategic planning and governance, the Board sets out priorities and objectives. It evaluates our performance and the process of our work to alleviate poverty and suffering, and approves relevant new policies and procedures. The Board appraises the Executive Management Team and is involved in making appointments to and dismissals from the team. The Board of Trustees works with key stakeholders and makes sure that we satisfy our regulatory requirements as a charity. The Board of Trustees are satisfied with the performance of Humanity Aid during the year and the position at 1st March 2023.

There are four trustees.

- Yasmin Khan - Chairman
- Lynda Moussaoui – Treasurer
- Rizwana Nisar- Trustee
- Tasneem Khan- Trustee

The trustees, who are also the company directors of Humanity Aid, are responsible for preparing the trustees' report. This includes the group strategic report and the financial statements, preparing these in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice). Company law requires our trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year. They must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company and the group, and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including income and expenditure, of the charitable group for that period. As trustees of Humanity Aid, we feel blessed and proud of the commendable work, we as an organization have undertaken over the year.

Going Concern

The Board consider that Humanity Aid is in a strong position to continue its activities during the coming year, and that the charity's assets are adequate to fulfil its obligations. The Trustees believe there are no material uncertainties that call into doubt our ability to continue as a going concern. The annual financial statements have therefore been prepared on the basis that the charity is a going concern.

Public benefit

We develop strategic plans to make certain that we deliver maximum public benefit and achieve our strategic objectives, which fall under purposes defined by the Charities Act 2011. The trustees have carefully considered the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit in setting our objectives and planning our activities.

Objectives, Aims and Activities of the Charity

The objectives of the charity are set out in the charity's trust deed and are summarised as follows:

The relief of financial hardship of people living in any part of the world who are the victims of natural or other kinds of disaster or trouble by providing such persons with goods and other services to support their basic needs of education, medical, food, clothing and shelter.

Our strategies for the achievement of these objectives are to identify countries or areas where emergency or priority aid is required and then to establish projects that will help meet their needs. We then fundraise for those projects and establish them on the ground with our partners with the help of volunteers. We assist and monitor in the delivery of those projects on the ground through selected regional partners.

Activities during the year

In 2022, the trustees consider that the services and activities carried out are in line with the objectives of the charity, as summarised below, not only deliver aid to those in need overseas but also provide benefit to people in this country by allowing them to meet their moral and religious wishes and obligations to help those less fortunate around the world.

How our activities deliver public benefit

Our main activities and who we try to help are described below. All our charitable activities focus on the relief of financial hardship of people living in any part of the world who are the victims of natural or other kinds of disaster or trouble by providing such persons with goods and other services to support their basic needs of education, medical, food, clothing and shelter.

Ramadan Appeal

Our main month for donations is the Islamic month of Ramadan (month of fasting), which fell in the month of March to April in 2023. We supplied Food Packs to 100's of needy families in Pakistan.

Pakistan Floods

The floods in Pakistan killed over 1000 people and displaced more than 30 million people. Pakistani government declared an emergency as the floods continued to wreak havoc in Pakistan. We raised funds and helped build homes for needy families.

Turkey & Syria Earthquake

Monday 6 February, a 7.8 magnitude earthquake hit south-east Turkey, killing 55,000 and injuring millions, we raised funds for the victims of the earthquake.

Due Diligence

Humanity Aid carefully selects non-political partners from the voluntary sector to ensure the right partners are selected to implement projects on the ground. Also, we carry other due diligence and criminal checks by talking to local partners, obtaining information about them and signing collaboration agreements.

Humanity Aid also has partner ranging from small community support groups to national alliances along with our international networks.

We would like to thank all our existing partners Roshan Pakistan Trust and Saima Welfare Trust both in Pakistan for their continuous support.

Future Plans

We have had a very tough year with the pandemic, some of our volunteers and Trustees have lost family members. We are aiming to continue our work through our grass root volunteer base to help the poor and suffering around the world. We want to continue our work in Pakistan and also support local refugees, homeless and needy in UK.

We are hoping to expand to provide aid in more countries such as Bangladesh, Burma, Gaza, and Yemen.

Structure, Governance and Management

The trustees meet together as a body on a regular basis and are responsible for all decisions taken in relation to running and activities of the charity. The trustees continue to be actively involved in the running of projects supported by a large number of volunteers.

The charity trustees are responsible for the general control and management of the charity. The trustees give their time freely and receive no remuneration or other financial benefits.

The current trustees will be working with its advisers in the coming year to establish a process of induction and training of any new and existing trustees in accordance with its trust deed.

Our aim is to provide international support responding to human sufferings in emergency and disaster situations all over the world regardless of race, gender, ethnicity, class and religion.

Recruitment and appointment of new trustees

The process involves determining the optimum skills, knowledge and experience mix for the: current operational climate and needs, identifying potential members, promoting and explaining the activities of the Board to potential members. Quality, characteristics and qualifications are decided upon when selecting members of the Board of Trustees.

The existing trustees are responsible for the recruitment of new trustees and will appoint additional trustees as and when required.

Potential Trustees are interviewed by at least two existing trustees, obtain two references and once accepted. We are at present looking to add to our trustee board

Relationships between the charity and related parties

The induction of new Trustees would include an explanation of the function of the Board of Trustees and appointing a mentor for the new member to the Board of Trustees. An overview of the organisation and its activities is provided. On-going appropriate training is recommended.

Risk Management

Humanity Aid has visible, clear and easily accessible whistleblowing procedures. The Trustees take their responsibilities towards staff, donors, and beneficiaries very seriously. An important aspect of discharging these responsibilities involves the identification of management of all potential risks that might compromise staff, resources, or ability to deliver programmes.

The Charity, therefore has ultimate duty to regularly identify and review the risks to which the Charity is exposed, and ensure that appropriate controls are in place to provide reasonable assurance against fraud, malicious acts, and error. The Trustees, along with the CEO and the Senior Staff actively review these risks on a regular basis.

We operate in many unstable countries across the world, in challenging circumstances. To make and mitigate the associated risks the trustees assess the risks the charity faces on an ongoing basis and manage them throughout the year. Memorandum of understanding are arranged with local partners abroad, to ensure that risks are better controlled and managed. The trustees are satisfied that systems are in place, or arrangements are in hand, to manage the risks that have been identified. In particular, the trustees are aware of the risks associated with providing humanitarian aid in a conflict zone or high risk countries.

We also have due diligence processes in place to monitor partners, we put in place a Memorandum of Understanding, and obtain references, and where possible for trustees to visit they will go and check making sure all in order) volunteers, fundraisers and delivery of aid.

We receive regular reporting, documentation of work done and agreements, charity visits, beneficiaries feedback, references, organisations who have worked with partners. Furthermore, prescribed entity checks. Online checks regarding concerns. Feedback from volunteers, aid agency workers, other agencies and beneficiaries.

Risks are complex, due to the nature of the work we carry out. They are assessed on the basis of their likelihood and potential impact, which would allow the implementation of mitigation strategies to manage these risks.

Last year we instructed an external expert to conduct an internal audit review of all our policies, practices and procedures. The risk register is reviewed regularly.

The Principal risks to the charity have been identified as:

Strategic

Reputation

One of the most valuable assets of any charity is its reputation. It is vitally important that we do all we can to meet the expectations of our donors, beneficiaries, supporters and other organisations that we partner with. To protect the charity against reputational damage, we implement the following:

Fraud, Corruption and Bribery

1. We work very hard to ensure that integrity and transparency are embedded in all our policies and procedures. Conflict of interest; Anti-Bribery; Anti-Terrorism and Anti-Money Laundering policies are introduced and closely monitored.
2. Senior-level representation on many important forums and influential fronts, to ensure positive visibility, including a strong media presence.

Operational

Risks in this area include physical risks to our personnel and volunteers, and risks compromising the continuation of project delivery. To mitigate against such risks, the Charity has taken the following actions:

1. Developing Standard Operating Procedures for common processes to protect against loss of key staff or volunteers;
2. Improving the quality and the scope of training, to disseminate skills and good practice within the organisation, and to ensure staff safety and wellbeing;
3. Regular review of key systems and procedures to improve and strengthen the internal policies and communication processes, thus maintaining a clear structure of delegated authority and control.
4. Applying robust due diligence policy in our dealings with donors, and the use of "Thomson Reuters" tool to assess the suitability of personnel;
5. Adopting clear processes to review and assess our performance management system on the ground;
6. All programmes have up-to-date security policies, which include the provision of regular comprehensive security briefings and assessments, in response to rapid changes in the political and situation.

Cultural and Behaviour

The charity monitors and learns lessons for peer organisations as such as has focused on ensuring it develops the right culture and behaviour as the charity grows.

1. As such we have undertaken a review of policy and procedures to ensure they are 'fit for purpose.
2. A programme of regular training for all staff.

The Trustees, are, therefore, satisfied that adequate systems and procedures are in place to manage and minimize exposure to identified risks.

The contribution of volunteers

Humanity Aid is completely based around its volunteers. The trustees have developed a large pool of approximately regular 40 volunteers. Without these passionate network of volunteers, it would not be possible for Humanity Aid to exist or continue its operations.

The trustees are extremely grateful to the extraordinary volunteers and members of the public who have supported our appeals and have fundraised in their spare time to help those in need, without whom the charity would not have been able to deliver aid to the many thousands of people that we have been able to assist thus far.

Financial Review

Policies on reserves

Humanity Aid has raises funds for specific projects (restricted funds) and funds which are not specified for a particular project (unrestricted funds) which would be utilised where most required and applied at the discretion of the trustees to further the charity's purposes.

A significant proportion of this income consists of restricted funds for specific projects - the majority of which constitutes short-term aid responding to the basic needs (including food, water, clothing, shelter and primary education) of beneficiaries in areas blighted by conflict and or devastated by natural disaster. Given the charity's present level and nature of activities, the unrestricted funds not committed or invested in tangible and intangible fixed assets ("the free reserves") held by the charity should be £30,000. At this level, the trustees feel that they would be able to continue the current activities of the charity in the event of a significant drop in funding. Humanity Aid depends on unrestricted funds for its long-term developmental programmes, particularly in regions which have not received media coverage in recent months and years which has led to increased demand on unrestricted funds.

In light of this and the donor giving patterns of recent years, Humanity Aid has continued with its plan initiated in 2020:

1. Increase our capacity to work in emergency zones.
2. Simultaneously consolidate the geographical and thematic spread of long-term projects and projects offices.
3. Develop closer working relationships with grass-roots organisations in countries where we carry out projects
4. Diversify the donor base.

These measures, which will bring further efficiencies and savings, but still allow us to increase our reach to beneficiaries, will also be instrumental to the success of this plan.

In the event of a significant drop in funding, the trustees feel that they would be able to continue the current activities of the charity through the availability of reserves. It would obviously be necessary to consider how the funding would be replaced as activities change. The charity needs to be able to respond quickly to appeals for the relief of suffering in varied communities around the world and is presently achieving this aim, whilst further aiming to increase its unrestricted reserves position throughout each subsequent year.

The Statement of Financial Activities show incoming resources for the year of a revenue and realised nature of £26514.47 a majority of the expenditure is spent on delivering the charitable activities as stated in the Charity's aims and objectives.

Availability and adequacy of assets of each of the funds

The board of trustees are satisfied that the charity's assets in each fund are available and adequate to fulfil its obligations in respect of each fund.

Transactions and Financial position

The financial statements are set out on pages 11

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Statement of Recommended Practice and Section IA of FRS102 the trustees consider the financial performance by the charity during the year to have been satisfactory.

Trustees' Responsibilities

The trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities Act 2011 and the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008. Notwithstanding the explicit requirement in the extant statutory regulations, the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008, to prepare the financial statements in accordance with the Statement of Recommended Practice and Section 1A of FRS102.

In particular, charity law requires the Trustees, if they prepare accounts on an accrual's basis, to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity as at the end of the financial year and of the surplus or deficit of the charity. In preparing those financial statements the Trustees are required to: -

To prepare the accounts in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law).

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently.
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business.
- state whether applicable accounting standards and statements of recommended practice have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements.

The law requires that the trustees must not approve the accounts unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the surplus or deficit of the charity for the year.

The Trustees are also responsible for maintaining adequate accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and which are sufficient to show and explain the charity's transactions and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with regulations made under the charity legislation. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities. The Trustees are also responsible for the contents of the Trustees' report, and the accountant preparing the accounts has no responsibilities in relation to the Trustees' report.

Audit Exemption

For the financial year in question the company was entitled to exemption under section 477 of the Companies Act 2006 and Charities Act 2011.

No members have required the company to obtain an audit of its accounts for the year in question in accordance with section 476 of the Companies Act 2006 and Charities Act 2011.

The directors acknowledge their responsibility for complying with the requirements of the Act with respect to the accounting records and for the preparation of accounts.

Humanity Aid has visible, clear and easily accessible whistleblowing procedures. The Trustees take their responsibilities towards staff, donors, and beneficiaries very seriously. An important aspect of discharging these responsibilities involves the identification of management of all potential risks that might compromise staff, resources, or ability to deliver programmes.

The Charity, therefore has ultimate duty to regularly identify and review the risks to which the Charity is exposed, and ensure that appropriate controls are in place to provide reasonable assurance against fraud, malicious acts, and error. The Trustees, along with the CEO and the Senior Staff actively review these risks on a regular basis.

We operate in many unstable countries across the world, in challenging circumstances. To make and mitigate the associated risks the trustees assess the risks the charity faces on an ongoing basis and manage them throughout the year. Memorandum of understanding are arranged with local partners abroad, to ensure that risks are better controlled and managed. The trustees are satisfied that systems are in place, or arrangements are in hand, to manage the risks that have been identified. In particular, the trustees are aware of the risks associated with providing humanitarian aid in a conflict zone or high risk countries.

We also have due diligence processes in place to monitor partners, we put in place a Memorandum of Understanding, and obtain references, and where possible for trustees to visit they will go and check making sure all in order) volunteers, fundraisers and delivery of aid.

We receive regular reporting, documentation of work done and agreements, charity visits, beneficiaries feedback, references, organisations who have worked with partners. Furthermore, prescribed entity checks. Online checks regarding concerns. Feedback from volunteers, aid agency workers, other agencies and beneficiaries.

Risks are complex, due to the nature of the work we carry out. They are assessed on the basis of their likelihood and potential impact, which would allow the implementation of mitigation strategies to manage these risks.

Last year we instructed an external expert to conduct an internal audit review of all our policies, practices and procedures. The risk register is reviewed regularly.

The Principal risks to the charity have been identified as:

Strategic

Reputation

One of the most valuable assets of any charity is its reputation. It is vitally important that we do all we can to meet the expectations of our donors, beneficiaries, supporters and other organisations that we partner with. To protect the charity against reputational damage, we implement the following:

Fraud, Corruption and Bribery

1. We work very hard to ensure that integrity and transparency are embedded in all our policies and procedures. Conflict of interest; Anti-Bribery; Anti-Terrorism and Anti-Money Laundering policies are introduced and closely monitored.
2. Senior-level representation on many important forums and influential fronts, to ensure positive visibility, including a strong media presence.

Operational

Risks in this area include physical risks to our personnel and volunteers, and risks compromising the continuation of project delivery. To mitigate against such risks, the Charity has taken the following actions:

1. Developing Standard Operating Procedures for common processes to protect against loss of key staff or volunteers;
2. Improving the quality and the scope of training, to disseminate skills and good practice within the organisation, and to ensure staff safety and wellbeing;
3. Regular review of key systems and procedures to improve and strengthen the internal policies and communication processes, thus maintaining a clear structure of delegated authority and control.
4. Applying robust due diligence policy in our dealings with donors, and the use of "Thomson Reuters" tool to assess the suitability of personnel;
5. Adopting clear processes to review and assess our performance management system on the ground;
6. All programmes have up-to-date security policies, which include the provision of regular comprehensive security briefings and assessments, in response to rapid changes in the political and situation.

Cultural and Behaviour

The charity monitors and learns lessons for peer organisations as such as has focused on ensuring it develops the right culture and behaviour as the charity grows.

1. As such we have undertaken a review of policy and procedures to ensure they are 'fit for purpose.
2. A programme of regular training for all staff.

The Trustees, are, therefore, satisfied that adequate systems and procedures are in place to manage and minimize exposure to identified risks.

The contribution of volunteers

Humanity Aid is completely based around its volunteers. The trustees have developed a large pool of approximately regular 40 volunteers. Without these passionate network of volunteers, it would not be possible for Humanity Aid to exist or continue its operations.

The trustees are extremely grateful to the extraordinary volunteers and members of the public who have supported our appeals and have fundraised in their spare time to help those in need, without whom the charity would not have been able to deliver aid to the many thousands of people that we have been able to assist thus far.

Financial Review

Policies on reserves

Humanity Aid has raises funds for specific projects (restricted funds) and funds which are not specified for a particular project (unrestricted funds) which would be utilised where most required and applied at the discretion of the trustees to further the charity's purposes.

A significant proportion of this income consists of restricted funds for specific projects - the majority of which constitutes short-term aid responding to the basic needs (including food, water, clothing, shelter and primary education) of beneficiaries in areas blighted by conflict and or devastated by natural disaster. Given the charity's present level and nature of activities, the unrestricted funds not committed or invested in tangible and intangible fixed assets ("the free reserves") held by the charity should be £30,000. At this level, the trustees feel that they would be able to continue the current activities of the charity in the event of a significant drop in funding. Humanity Aid depends on unrestricted funds for its long-term developmental programmes, particularly in regions which have not received media coverage in recent months and years which has led to increased demand on unrestricted funds.

In light of this and the donor giving patterns of recent years, Humanity Aid has continued with its plan initiated in 2021:

1. Increase our capacity to work in emergency zones.
2. Simultaneously consolidate the geographical and thematic spread of long-term projects and projects offices.
3. Develop closer working relationships with grass-roots organisations in countries where we carry out projects
4. Diversify the donor base.

These measures, which will bring further efficiencies and savings, but still allow us to increase our reach to beneficiaries, will also be instrumental to the success of this plan.

In the event of a significant drop in funding, the trustees feel that they would be able to continue the current activities of the charity through the availability of reserves. It would obviously be necessary to consider how the funding would be replaced as activities change. The charity needs to be able to respond quickly to appeals for the relief of suffering in varied communities around the world and is presently achieving this aim, whilst further aiming to increase its unrestricted reserves position throughout each subsequent year.

The Statement of Financial Activities show incoming resources for the year of a revenue and realised nature of £22,986 a majority of the expenditure is spent on delivering the charitable activities as stated in the Charity's aims and objectives.

Availability and adequacy of assets of each of the funds

The board of trustees are satisfied that the charity's assets in each fund are available and adequate to fulfil its obligations in respect of each fund.

Transactions and Financial position

The financial statements are set out on pages 12

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Statement of Recommended Practice and Section IA of FRS102 the trustees consider the financial performance by the charity during the year to have been satisfactory.

Trustees' Responsibilities

The trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities Act 2011 and the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008. Notwithstanding the explicit requirement in the extant statutory regulations, the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008, to prepare the financial statements in accordance with the Statement of Recommended Practice and Section 1A of FRS102.

In particular, charity law requires the Trustees, if they prepare accounts on an accrual's basis, to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity as at the end of the financial year and of the surplus or deficit of the charity. In preparing those financial statements the Trustees are required to: -

To prepare the accounts in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law).

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently.
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business.
- state whether applicable accounting standards and statements of recommended practice have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements.

The law requires that the trustees must not approve the accounts unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the surplus or deficit of the charity for the year.

The Trustees are also responsible for maintaining adequate accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and which are sufficient to show and explain the charity's transactions and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with regulations made under the charity legislation. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities. The Trustees are also responsible for the contents of the Trustees' report, and the accountant preparing the accounts has no responsibilities in relation to the Trustees' report.

Audit Exemption

For the financial year in question the company was entitled to exemption under section 477 of the Companies Act 2006 and Charities Act 2011.

No members have required the company to obtain an audit of its accounts for the year in question in accordance with section 476 of the Companies Act 2006 and Charities Act 2011.

The Trustees acknowledge their responsibility for complying with the requirements of the Act with respect to the accounting records and for the preparation of accounts.

This report was approved by the board of trustees on 01/11/2022

Report of the Independent Examiner to the trustees

on the accounts of the Charity for the year ended 01 March 2022

We report on the financial statements of the charity on pages 11 to 18

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 01/03/2022.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

In carrying out my examination,

I confirm that there are no other matters to which your attention should be drawn to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

The Report of the Trustees for the year ended 01 March 2021

Introduction

Humanity Aid is a humanitarian organisation responding to the Prevention Or Relief Of Poverty General Charitable Purposes Education/training Overseas Aid/famine Relief

Governing Document

Humanity Aid, is constituted as a charitable trust registered with the Charity Commission on the 14th April 2020 under charity number 1189030.

Message from the Trustees

The Board of Trustees directs and oversees the organization in accordance with its statutory obligations. Focusing on strategic planning and governance, the Board sets out priorities and objectives. It evaluates our performance and the process of our work to alleviate poverty and suffering, and approves relevant new policies and procedures. The Board appraises the Executive Management Team and is involved in making appointments to and dismissals from the team. The Board of Trustees works with key stakeholders and makesure that we satisfy our regulatory requirements as a charity. The Board of Trustees are satisfied with the performance of Humanity Aid during the year and the position at 30th April 2021.

There are four trustees.

- Yasmin Khan - Chairman
- Lynda Moussaoui – Treasurer
- Rizwana Nisar- Trustee
- Tasneem Khan- Trustee

The trustees, who are also the company directors of Humanity Aid, are responsible for preparing the trustees' report. This includes the group strategic report and the financial statements, preparing these in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice). Company law requires our trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year. They must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company and the group, and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including income and expenditure, of the charitable group for that period. As trustees of Humanity Aid, we feel blessed and proud of the commendable work, we as an organization have undertaken over the year.

Going Concern

The Board consider that Humanity Aid is in a strong position to continue its activities during the coming year, and that the charity's assets are adequate to fulfil its obligations. The Trustees believe there are no material uncertainties that call into doubt our ability to continue as a going concern. The annual financial statements have therefore been prepared on the basis that the charity is a going concern.

Public benefit

We develop strategic plans to make certain that we deliver maximum public benefit and achieve our strategic objectives, which fall under purposes defined by the Charities Act 2011. The trustees have carefully considered the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit in setting our objectives and planning our activities.

Objectives, Aims and Activities of the Charity

The objectives of the charity are set out in the charity's trust deed and are summarised as follows:

The relief of financial hardship of people living in any part of the world who are the victims of natural or other kinds of disaster or trouble by providing such persons with goods and other services to support their basic needs of education, medical, food, clothing and shelter.

Our strategies for the achievement of these objectives are to identify countries or areas where emergency or priority aid is required and then to establish projects that will help meet their needs. We then fundraise for those projects and establish them on the ground with our partners with the help of volunteers. We assist and monitor in the delivery of those projects on the ground through selected regional partners.

Activities during the year

In 2021, the trustees consider that the services and activities carried out are in line with the objectives of the charity, as summarised below, not only deliver aid to those in need overseas but also provide benefit to people in this country by allowing them to meet their moral and religious wishes and obligations to help those less fortunate around the world.

How our activities deliver public benefit

Our main activities and who we try to help are described below. All our charitable activities focus on the relief of financial hardship of people living in any part of the world who are the victims of natural or other kinds of disaster or trouble by providing such persons with goods and other services to support their basic needs of education, medical, food, clothing and shelter.

Ramadan Appeal

Our main month for donations is the Islamic month of Ramadan (month of fasting), which fell in the month of April to May in 2020. We supplied Food Packs to 100's of needy families in Pakistan.

Due Diligence

Humanity Aid carefully selects non-political partners from the voluntary sector to ensure the right partners are selected to implement projects on the ground. Also, we carry other due diligence and criminal checks by talking to local partners, obtaining information about them and signing collaboration agreements.

Humanity Aid also has partner ranging from small community support groups to national alliances along with our international networks.

We would like to thank all our existing partners Roshan Pakistan Trust and Saima Welfare Trust both in Pakistan for their continuous support.

Future Plans

We have had a very tough year with the pandemic, some of our volunteers and Trustees have lost family members. We are aiming to continue our work through our grass root volunteer base to help the poor and suffering around the world. We want to continue our work in Pakistan and also support local refugees, homeless and needy in UK.

We are hoping to expand to provide aid in more countries such as Bangladesh, Burma, Gaza, and Yemen.

Name, registered office and constitution of the charity

Structure, Governance and Management

The trustees meet together as a body on a regular basis and are responsible for all decisions taken in relation to running and activities of the charity. The trustees continue to be actively involved in the running of projects supported by a large number of volunteers.

The charity trustees are responsible for the general control and management of the charity. The trustees give their time freely and receive no remuneration or other financial benefits.

The current trustees will be working with its advisers in the coming year to establish a process of induction and training of any new and existing trustees in accordance with its trust deed.

Our aim is to provide international support responding to human sufferings in emergency and disaster situations all over the world regardless of race, gender, ethnicity, class and religion.

Recruitment and appointment of new trustees

The process involves determining the optimum skills, knowledge and experience mix for the: current operational climate and needs, identifying potential members, promoting and explaining the activities of the Board to potential members. Quality, characteristics and qualifications are decided upon when selecting members of the Board of Trustees.

The existing trustees are responsible for the recruitment of new trustees and will appoint additional trustees as and when required.

Potential Trustees are interviewed by at least two existing trustees, obtain two references and once accepted. We are at present looking to add to our trustee board

Relationships between the charity and related parties

The induction of new Trustees would include an explanation of the function of the Board of Trustees and appointing a mentor for the new member to the Board of Trustees. An overview of the organisation and its activities is provided. On-going appropriate training is recommended.

Risk Management

Humanity Aid has visible, clear and easily accessible whistleblowing procedures. The Trustees take their responsibilities towards staff, donors, and beneficiaries very seriously. An important aspect of discharging these responsibilities involves the identification of management of all potential risks that might compromise staff, resources, or ability to deliver programmes.

The Charity, therefore has ultimate duty to regularly identify and review the risks to which the Charity is exposed, and ensure that appropriate controls are in place to provide reasonable assurance against fraud, malicious acts, and error. We also have due diligence processes in place to monitor partners, we put in place a Memorandum of Understanding, and obtain references, and where possible for trustees to visit they will go and check making sure all in order) volunteers, fundraisers and delivery of aid.

We receive regular reporting, documentation of work done and agreements, charity visits, beneficiaries feedback, references, organisations who have worked with partners. Furthermore, prescribed entity checks. Online checks regarding concerns. Feedback from volunteers, aid agency workers, other agencies and beneficiaries.

Risks are complex, due to the nature of the work we carry out. They are assessed on the basis of their likelihood and potential impact, which would allow the implementation of mitigation strategies to manage these risks.

Last year we instructed an external expert to conduct an internal audit review of all our policies, practices and procedures. The risk register is reviewed regularly.

Availability and adequacy of assets of each of the funds

The board of trustees are satisfied that the charity's assets in each fund are available and adequate to fulfil its obligations in respect of each fund.

Transactions and Financial position

The financial statements are set out on pages 12

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Statement of Recommended Practice and Section IA of FRS102 the trustees consider the financial performance by the charity during the year to have been satisfactory.

Trustees' Responsibilities

The trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities Act 2011 and the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008. Notwithstanding the explicit requirement in the extant statutory regulations, the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008, to prepare the financial statements in accordance with the Statement of Recommended Practice and Section 1A of FRS102.

To prepare the accounts in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law).

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently.
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business.
- state whether applicable accounting standards and statements of recommended practice have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements.

The law requires that the trustees must not approve the accounts unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the surplus or deficit of the charity for the year.

The Trustees are also responsible for maintaining adequate accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and which are sufficient to show and explain the charity's transactions and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with regulations made under the charity legislation. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities. The Trustees are also responsible for the contents of the Trustees' report, and the accountant preparing the accounts has no responsibilities in relation to the Trustees' report.

Audit Exemption

For the financial year in question the company was entitled to exemption under section 477 of the Companies Act 2006 and Charities Act 2011.

No members have required the company to obtain an audit of its accounts for the year in question in accordance with section 476 of the Companies Act 2006 and Charities Act 2011.

The Trustees acknowledge their responsibility for complying with the requirements of the Act with respect to the accounting records and for the preparation of accounts.
