Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on	I can confirm that in the completion of this annual return that the trustees have had regard to guidance issued by the Charity Commission on Public benefit.

public benefit
Contribution made by volunteers	The charity is fully led and run by volunteers who have devoted themselves on Zoom platform, conference phone calls, consultative meetings with Young People and their GWC appointed Youth Leader
Other	Lessons learnt: Young people are under-going a lot of pressure and they need regular Counselling and activities. Risks identified confidential space / building is lacking. Mitigation: To address the above GWC is looking for a building to occupy and funding / grants
Achievements and Performance
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Regular online meetings enabled the coordination of support through this pandemic. Services and provisions were supplied to all those who had to shield and were in isolation.
Other	Lessons learnt: It is important to have practical and spiritual support, care, concern, and love for each other during times of crisis. One can easily be negatively affected if support was absent. Risks: Access to funds. Mitigation: Sharing of all available resources
Plans for Future Periods
Note any aims and key objectives set for future periods together with	The young people are keen to learn musical instruments of their own choice eg. guitar, piano, violin, drums. It would be beneficial if they were to access a range

details of any activities planned to achieve them.	of the instruments and a music studio / building. A Safe House (Refuge) Regarding the GWC youth programme, and according to the Children's Act 1989 (S17) it is our general duty to safeguard and promote the welfare of children within their area of need. In line with its objectives, GWC has identified the need to acquire a Safe House where a child who is unsafe and is facing difficulties could seek refuge. Our Global Word future plans involve spiritual care, growing the young people into leadership roles so that they can stand on their own. In this way, they can effectively plan their activities and make them more meaningful and suitable to engage in.
Other	Lessons learnt, GWC will update its business plan to reflect the identified need Risks: Cannot be achieved without Funding or grants and a safe house. Mitigation: Applying for grants and funds.
