Risks

The trustees actively review major risks which the charitable company faces on a regular basis and believe that maintaining reserves at current levels, combined with an annual review of the controls over key financial systems, will provide sufficient resources in the event of adverse conditions. The trustees have also examined other operational and business risks faced by the charity and confirm that they have established systems to mitigate the significant risks.

We have a group called “Creations” who make items such as key rings, calenders and candles. They sell these handmade items, and all profits go back into the group to buy new materials. This is a fantastic group, and all these carefully crafted items are sold by our clients at our coffee mornings. These coffee mornings are well supported by the local community, and give our guys a sense of pride seeing their creations being sold and enjoyed.

Physical health and mental wellbeing are a priority for our clients at Social eyes. Our football team empowers and builds friendship, whilst emphasising the importance of exercise and keeping fit. Our male and female health group discuss wellbeing topics, and keep physically active out in the community.

The trustees have the power under the constitution to invest the charity's funds in a way they think fit provided they obtain and consider professional investment advice.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINERS' REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF SOCIAL EYES CIO

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the CIO for the year ended 31 March 2024 which are set out on pages 7 to 16.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the charity's accounts carried out under section 145 of the Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

Since the company's gross income exceeded £250,000 your examiner must be a member of a body listed in section 145 of the 2011 Act. I confirm that I am qualified to undertake the examination because I am a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales, which is one of the listed bodies.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. Accounting records were not kept in respect of the charity as required by section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair view' which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
