ILLYRIA CONSORT CIO

TRUSTEES' REPORT FOR THE PERIOD ENDED 31 MARCH 2025

The Trustees present their annual report together with the financial statements of the charity for the year to 31 March 2025.

Illyria Consort CIO is registered with the Charity Commission under number 1189185.

Structure, governance and management

The principal object of the charity is to advance the education of the public in the art of baroque and early classical music and the allied arts.

The management of the charity is the responsibility of the Trustees who are elected and co-opted under the terms of the Constitution.

Objectives and Activities

Illyria Consort CIO was formed as the severity of the Covid 19 pandemic became apparent, which limited opportunities for live performance and collaborative recording. As such the charity remained dormant in recent years. However, during the year under review a bank account was opened and the charity commenced operations on a small scale.

The trustees have had regard to the guidance on public benefit issue by the charity commission.

Achievements and Performance

The principal activity undertaken was the recording of a selection of Bach cantatas. This project involved collaboration with a group of professional classical musicians who specialise in historically informed performance of Baroque music. The recording serves both educational and cultural purposes, promoting wider appreciation and understanding of this musical tradition.

Financial review

During the year, the charity received total donations of £22,080 (2024: £nil). In addition, Gift Aid of £2,270 (2024: £nil) was accrued in respect of eligible donations, bringing the total incoming resources to £24,350 (2024: £nil).

Expenditure for the year amounted to £11,997 (2024: £nil). This primarily related to costs incurred in delivering the charity's principal activity during the period — the recording of selected Bach cantatas with professional musicians.

As a result, the charity recorded a net surplus of £12,353 (2024: £nil) for the year. This amount is held as unrestricted reserves at the year end and will be used to support the charity's ongoing and future activities in line with its objectives.

Reserves policy

As at the year end, the charity held unrestricted reserves of £12,353 (2024: £nil), which the trustees consider appropriate in light of the charity's reactivation and the planned development of future projects.

The reserves will be reviewed annually as part of the budgeting and planning process, and the policy will be adjusted if the scale or nature of the charity's activities changes significantly. The trustees are satisfied with the financial position and consider the level of reserves to be appropriate given the charity's current scale of operations and planned future work.

ILLYRIA CONSORT CIO

Plans for future periods

Future plans include making further recordings as well as exploring opportunities for further performance or outreach projects as resources allow.
