Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To act as a resource for people living in [England & Wales] by providing advice and assistance and organising programmes of physical, educational and other activities as a means of:

(d) Providing recreational and leisure time activity in the interests of social welfare for people living in the area of benefit who have need by reason of their youth, age, infirmity or disability, poverty or social and economic circumstances with a view to improving the conditions of life of such persons.

The promotion of physical and mental health (what) for the public benefit (who) in England and Wales (where) by raising awareness of mental and physical support (how).

The charity has organised and taken part in family fun days. The events are free and offered a safe and fun environment for families especially, the kids of all ages.

The activities and events tackle Loneliness, mental health, community cohesion and cost of living.

The theme of most of our activities takes these issues into account. We aim to build healthy sustainable communities, by supporting families and promoting good healthy habits with fun activities.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Achievements and performance

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The charity has been successful in securing funding from local authorities, which has been a result of networking and building trust. The charity has created long term partnerships which has helped to grow our offerings and opportunities.

The charity donations has increased, and awareness of our work attracts a wide range of supporters, clients, and volunteers. The charity has trialled some activities with mixed responses. A few successes and some fails, which we have learned from. The charity has had a tough start during the pandemic but has worked hard to become sustainable.

Section E
