Report of the Trustees for the Year Ended

APRIL 30 2025

The trustees present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 30 April 2025.

The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019)

OBJECTIVES & AIMS

The charity aims to preserve and protect physical and mental health and relieve suffering amongst young persons affected by the death of a sibling by providing appropriate and/or specialist information, advice and support through the provision of resources and access to a community of persons similarly affected

SIGNIFICANT ACTIVITIES

During the 24-25 year, we once again successfully pushed the realms of what is possible as a small charity that is responding to such a significant demand for sibling bereavement support, across the country. We continue to hear stories from bereaved siblings that we speak to and national statistics, that sibling grief remains a truly isolating time for any young person whose brother or sister has died. In the past year, thousands of children and young people have wondered if they are the only one to experience the death of a brother or sister. They have felt lonely after no longer having their first friend by their side and questioned whether their feelings are validated. They have had days where they have hesitantly got out of bed in the morning and felt guilty at being able to do so. That's why this year had a strong theme for us of bringing siblings and their families together. We achieved this through launching a range of projects, all designed to reduce isolation, increase our offering of support and empowering siblings to know they can manage the impact of sibling grief.

During the year, we launched the sibling Professionals network by bringing together a group of committed and dedicated bereavement professionals, from around the UK. The day highlighted their dedication to supporting bereaved siblings and evidenced the commitment there is to working together on this mission. We also launched the sibling Bereavement helpline, in partnership with Child Bereavement UK. This helpline provides trained support to bereaved siblings, their families and professionals to ensure they're given appropriate advice and guidance. We also joined the steering group of other national charities who plan and coordinate Children's Grief Awareness Week. This highly successful week shone light on the thousands of children who grieve every year. Towards the end of the year, we launched 'Programme for Parents' our free online resource that empowers parents to speak confidently and openly about grief, with their children.

Aside from launching our new projects, we responded to requests for over 4,000 of our free grief and wellbeing resources and overall, supported over 1,000 bereaved siblings across the country.

This work was all undermined by our knowledge that to continue growing, we need to invest in a new member of staff, responsible for the growth and development of our work. As such, we were delighted to welcome our new Growth Director who started with us in February.

None of this would have been possible at all without the prenominal support of our fundraisers, who raised a collective £23,000 for sibling support, throughout the year.

PUBLIC BENEFIT

Trustees have reviewed the guidance issued by the charity commission on public benefit.

VOLUNTEERS

We couldn't do our work without the invaluable support of volunteers. From those that offer their time and advice, to others who carry out admin tasks, such as posting our mindfulness boxes.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Financial position AS at 30 April 2025 the charity had cash funds available of £51,595 (2024: £53,479), unrestricted reserves of £46,942 (2024: £53,479) and restricted reserves of £7,150 (2024: £nil)

RESERVES POLICY

Sibling support will hold £30,000 in reserves, which is around six months of operating costs, or 15% of the previous year's income, whichever is higher. We recognise that unrestricted funds allow our charity to adapt to its needs and deal with any shortfall of funding.

Most of our income is already unrestricted, through donations and fundraising.

This reserves policy will be revisited annually as soon as the funding situation changes.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE & MANAGEMENT

GOVERNING DOCUMENT

Sibling support is a charitable incorporated organisation registered on 29 April 2020.

INTRODUCTION & TRAINING OF NEW TRUSTEES

Trustee application is an open process.

Applications from suitable candidates are welcome and anyone wishing to apply to be a trustee that fits the given criteria will be considered.

New trustees can be selected at a trustee meeting, in which 50% or greater of trustees will agree to a new appointment. When considering the selection criteria for an appointment as a charity trustee, the current board will take into account the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of the charity.

STATEMENT OF TRUSTEE'S RESPONSIBILITIES:

The trustees are responsible for preparing the Report of the Trustees and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

Charity law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law, the trustees have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting standards and applicable law).

Under charity law the trustees must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure, of the charity for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the charity's SORP;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is
• inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 2011 and The Charity (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.
