Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To advance the Orthodox Christian faith in Kent, London and SE England in particular and throughout the UK for the public benefit, mainly but not exclusively by providing

- a place of worship, religious education, pastoral care, religious ceremonies such as liturgical services , baptisms , christenings , weddings , funerals , and other regular religious services to the Bulgarian as well as other Orthodox Christians
- the building and maintenance of a church and community centre.
- ministry to the people through canonical services conducted according to the order and tradition of the Bulgarian Orthodox Diocese of Western and Central Europe at the Bulgarian Orthodox Church – Bulgarian Patriarchate.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

In the third year of operation, and after the end of the Corovavirus restrictions the Charity has gone from strength to strength.

We have been able to hold regular church services in Kent as well as in London. The congregation has been growing steadily and consistently.

We were able to run a successful online and in person fundraising campaign and have managed to secure funds to maintain the services going.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

We have been able to hold regular church services in Kent as well as in London for the whole accounts period. The congregation has been growing steadily and consistently. We have run a successful online and in person fundraising campaign and have managed to secure funds to maintain the services going.

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The Charity intends to hold a 10% of all income in reserves, which are intended to cover short term shortfalls in revenue. None of the reserves will be restricted.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

None

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
