Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

Advancement of the Christian religion by the extension of the Pevensey churchyard and maintenance of Church Farm field as a tranquil and attractive area.

Church Farm field has been maintained as a tranquil and attractive area. The scope for extending the churchyard is constrained by environmental and archaeological requirements and their associated costs.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Maintenance of Church Farm field as a tranquil and attractive area in cooperation with the tenant who grazes livestock with the agreement of the trustees.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

There are no reserves, just a small fluctuating cash surplus.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

Rent paid by the tenant under a grazing agreement is sufficient to meet the trustees' annual expenses such as insurance costs.

Section F Other optional information
