- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

We opt to do voluntary works in hospitals and care facilities so as to gain an insight of policies and procedures governing most institutions. This enable our trustees to gain knowledge, experience and skills to carry out their responsibilities and duties.

The charity has a simple structure as of now with a CEO , Secretary and trustees since we are new and still gaining grounds.

Trustees are different individuals except for one who is a spouse.

Trustees are to ensure they engage in activities that will have less risk and all to share as such. Trustees endeavour to follow the internal policies and procedures so as to minimise any risk.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The charity engages in working with those individuals with learning disabilities, autism and other related health issues and impairments.

We look for engaging to areas of the ethnic minority and under served and unprivileged people in the community such as BAME.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

We have mostly been operational voluntary especially during the Covid-19 pandemic in hospitals and also supporting in distributing food pack to elderly and those isolated. Running errands and shopping.

We haven't actively engaged directly as a charity organisation in any public activities.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)
