STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing Document

The charity is a Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO) registered with the Charity Commission for England and Wales on 11 June 2020.

Recruitment and Appointment of Trustees

The trustees serving during the year are listed in the reference and administrative details section of this report.

Organisational Structure

The charity is governed by its trustees who meet as required to administer the charity and determine its strategic direction.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Charitable Objects

The objects of the CIO are to further such charitable purposes according to the law of England and Wales for the benefit of the inhabitants of the parish of Ombersley in the County of Worcestershire ("the Parish") and the areas adjacent thereto as the charity trustees see fit from time to time, including in particular but not limited to the following for the public benefit:

1) To advance arts, culture, heritage or science by the conservation, protection and improvement of the Walled Garden and Stables at Ombersley Court and any buildings or areas of land attached or ancillary thereto which may be of historic or architectural or cultural or ecological or scientific or other particular interest as the charity trustees shall determine from time to time.

2) To advance the education of the public in the conservation, protection and improvement of Ombersley Court and in particular to promote and make available to the public information regarding the historic or architectural or cultural or ecological or scientific or agricultural or horticultural or other particular interest of Ombersley Court and its locality including without limitation the Walled Garden and Stables at Ombersley Court by interacting with the local community and providing displays or exhibitions or a museum or by such other means as the charity trustees shall determine from time to time.

Activities and Public Benefit

The trustees confirm that they have referred to the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit when reviewing the charity's aims and objectives and in planning future activities.

ACHIEVEMENTS AND PERFORMANCE

Review of Activities

The charity has remained dormant during the financial year ended 31 December 2024. No charitable activities have been undertaken, and no income has been received or expenditure incurred during this period.

The trustees continue to review the charity's position and future activities.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Results for the Year

The charity had no income or expenditure during the year ended 31 December 2024. The charity held no assets or liabilities at the balance sheet date.

Reserves Policy

As the charity is dormant with no assets or liabilities, no reserves policy is currently in operation.

Risk Management

The trustees have assessed the major risks to which the charity is exposed and are satisfied that systems are in place to mitigate exposure to the major risks.

PLANS FOR THE FUTURE

The trustees will continue to review opportunities to pursue the charity's objects in accordance with its governing document.

TRUSTEES' RESPONSIBILITIES IN RELATION TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The charity trustees are responsible for preparing a trustees' annual report and financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

The law applicable to charities in England and Wales requires the charity trustees to prepare financial statements for each year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the incoming resources and application of resources of the charity for that period.

In preparing the financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently.
- Observe the methods and principles in the applicable Charities SORP.
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent.
- State whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements.
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operation.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 2011. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.
