Masjid Aisha
Trustees Report
for the year ending 30 June 2024

The trustees present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 30 June 2024

Objectives and principal activities

The Objects of the CIO are, for the public benefit:- to advance the Islamic religion in accordance with the teachings of the Quran and the teachings of Prophet Muhammed (peace be upon him) and his companions according to the interpretation and accepted view of the Ahlus Sunnah Wal Jamaa-ah and as expounded by the Salafus Saaliheen (Pious Predecessors); and to further Islamic education including the teaching of the Arabic language.

Activities and progress

The charity carries out Islamic education in pursuance of its charitable aims. The trustees consider that these activities, summarised below, provide benefit both to those who worship at our Mosque and the wider community of Leicester.

Our Mosque provides a centre for our prayers and worship for the activities associated with our faith.

During the year under review, we offered a range of religious services as follows:

Five times prayers are held every day
The Friday sermon and prayers are held every week.
Education and training is provided for the youth
Islamic Weddings – Nikah services are offered
Funeral assistance is provided as and when needed
Daily advices take place on Qur'an, Hadith and spirituality
Extra prayers are conducted in the month of Ramadan as well as the two festivals of Eid.

Occasional youth programs take place on different themes like addiction, charity, current issues etc.

External speakers are invited to deliver speeches and presentations on a wide range of topics.

Our hall is hired out to the members of the community for their family functions, graduations etc.

Local charities, NGOs and community groups have access to our facilities for meetings, community discussions etc.

This year we also installed solar panels to help reduce running costs and help the environment.

Recruitment and Appointment of Trustees

The charity is governed by a board of trustees drawn from the local community. This is to ensure that the board has the skills and experience required to oversee the management of the charity and its operations.

The charity trustees are responsible for the general control and management of the charity. The trustees give their time freely and receive no remuneration or other financial benefits.

Reserves Policy

The trustees aim to ensure that sufficient funds are maintained to enable the charity to carry out its activities.

Financial review

The detailed results of the charities finances are set up in the accounts.

Signed on behalf of the trustees on 30th April 2025.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to be 'F Khamkar', is written above the printed name.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under section 43(2) of the Charities Act 1993 (the Act), as amended by s.28 of the Charities Act 2006) and that an independent examination is needed. It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts (under section 43 of the Act, as amended),
- to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 43(7)(b) of the Act, as amended), and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent
examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.

Independent
examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *)

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the trustees have not met the requirements to ensure that:
 - proper accounting records are kept (in accordance with section 41 of the Act); and
 - accounts are prepared which agree with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Act; or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
