Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	The objectives of the CIO are: a) the advancement of the Christian faith in Shropshire and in such other parts of the United Kingdom or the world in accordance with the statement of beliefs (listed at the end of this constitution) and the fulfilment of such other purposes which are exclusively charitable according to the law of England and are connected with the charitable work of the charity; b) to relieve persons who are in conditions of need or hardship or who are aged or sick and to relieve the distress caused thereby in the said location and in such other parts of the United Kingdom or the world as the trustees may from time to time think fit.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	We continued to meet together regularly throughout the year. The number of members remained steady. As a church we continued to donate a monthly amount to the local Baby Bank. We continued our contact with two overseas Christian workers and their families. We increased our regular donations to the family in Cyprus to support their ongoing work. We had regular zoom calls with the second couple in the Philippines, giving them prayer support throughout the year. We continued to run a midweek meeting on Wednesday evenings at one of our member's homes, led by another congregation member and had two additional small groups for seniors who

		weren't able to join us on Sundays. This brought friendship and spiritual support. As part of our church membership we had several needy people and continued to assist one person with their annual tax return. We continued an Alpha course with three people who attended the church only occasionally. This also included hospitality in a member's home each time we met. We gave lifts to and from church for some of our elderly members, without which they would have found it difficult to attend. At Christmas time we organised a number of events for the community including Sunday breakfasts and a live stream of a nativity play for the second year running. This replaced our weekly gathering. They were well attended by new families who wouldn't usually go to church. Our annual Carol service (with live animals for the children) was extremely well attended by local children with their families and elderly folk. 'Little Bundles', our Parent/Carer birth to pre-school Toddler group on Friday mornings, continued as a thriving regular community provision. This was very well attended and enjoyed by parents and children. It provided a safe and happy place for all who came along. We led the Easter sunrise service on Easter Sunday morning in the local village and provided hospitality with breakfast after the event which was attended by three other churches.

Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	The objectives of the CIO are: a) the advancement of the Christian faith in Shropshire and in such other parts of the United Kingdom or the world in accordance with the statement of beliefs (listed at the end of this constitution) and the fulfilment of such other purposes which are exclusively charitable according to the law of England and are connected with the charitable work of the charity; b) to relieve persons who are in conditions of need or hardship or who are aged or sick and to relieve the distress caused thereby in the said location and in such other parts of the United Kingdom or the world as the trustees may from time to time think fit.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	By the beginning of September 2021 we were meeting together regularly back in the hall after the easing of COVID restrictions. Our purchase of a professional zoom package had enabled us to maintain numbers in the congregation. In fact, we had gained 3 members mainly due to 1:1 friendship and the community events. We continued to be active in

		arranging shared supermarket deliveries for neighbours (as well as some church members who needed them) and delivered them to their doorsteps. As a church we continued to donate a monthly amount to the local Foodbank and also to a new Baby Bank that emerged in that time. These donations continue to date. In addition, we made contact with two overseas missionary families; one in Cyprus to whom we give regular donations for their work. The second is a couple in the Philippines with whom we have regular zoom calls, giving them prayer support throughout the year. We have been running a midweek meeting on Wednesday evenings at one of our member's homes, led by another congregation member. One of our ladies from the afternoon Alpha group which continued to meet until Christmas has now moved to a different town and we helped her find a Methodist church there. As part of our church membership we have several needy people and have continued to assist one person with their annual tax return. Another has been in prison hospital for a number of months now with mental health issues but we have kept in touch by letter writing which has been an encouragement to him. We are still currently making two weekly home visits for encouragement as neither household is able to attend church meetings due to physical limitations. We pay for a taxi for one member who would not otherwise be able to attend on Sundays and we give lifts home for some of our elderly members. We have organised 3 free events ('Christmas Bash', 'Lunch and Skittles' and 'Sunday breakfast' in the summer months) this year for the community instead of our weekly gathering. They were very well attended and enjoyed by those who wouldn't usually want

Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	We started meeting together regularly back in the hall on 22/08/21. Prior to this during the covid pandemic we offered a variety of meeting environments which satisfied any particular restrictions from the Government at the time: e.g. on one Sunday we met in 2 groups of a maximum number of 6 people on the playing field in Meole Brace. On other occasions we met in our

		garden and then in our homes as allowed by maximum numbers of people. When we could not meet up at all, earlier in the pandemic, we held weekly Zoom church on a Sunday afternoon where we were also able to monitor the welfare of our members. We purchased the Zoom Professional package for this purpose. As a result we didn't lose any members over the period of the pandemic which has been a problem for some churches. We gained 3 members mainly due to 1:1 friendship. We arranged regular 1:1 meetings on the local playing field for members suffering with mental health issues and guided them to the specific professional help that exists here in Shropshire which led to their rehabilitation. We were active in arranging shared supermarket deliveries for neighbours who were either shielding or physically limited (as well as some church members who needed them) and delivered them to their doorsteps. As a church we started to donate a monthly amount to the local Foodbank and also to a new Baby Bank that emerged at that time. These donations continue to date.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	All three trustees have endeavoured to, and continue to, apply the principle of public benefit to all our activities.
