Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The advancement of citizenship by promoting the principles of good citizenship, encouraging members to take an active interest in the civic, cultural, social and moral welfare of the community, encouraging service-minded people to serve their community, supporting youth to develop their skills to enable them to participate in society, promoting the voluntary sector for the public benefit, promoting volunteering, the relief of poverty and the relief of those in need by providing humanitarian aid and disaster relief, the advancement of health, promoting conservation protection and improvement of the physical and natural environment, promoting community participation in healthy recreation.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Unfortunately, there were protracted problems with opening a new bank account – with bank acknowledging fault. Therefore we could not transfer our assets from the old charitable trust to our new CIO.

This has led to Harrow & Pinner Lions Club (CIO) remaining dormant during this period.

Harrow & Pinner Lions Charitable Trust (293625) has submitted its accounts.

The advancement of citizenship by promoting the principles of good citizenship, encouraging members to take an active interest in the civic, cultural, social and moral welfare of the community, encouraging service-minded people to serve their community, supporting youth to develop their skills to enable them to participate in society, promoting the voluntary sector for the public benefit, promoting volunteering, the relief of poverty and the relief of those in need by providing humanitarian aid and disaster relief, the advancement of health, promoting conservation protection and improvement of the physical and natural environment, promoting community participation in healthy recreation.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Unfortunately, the Covid-19 pandemic had such a great impact on the charity, that we were not able to open a bank account during this period. Banks were not opening branches to allow us to submit our application forms in person, therefore we could not transfer our assets from the old charitable trust to our new CIO.

This has led to Harrow & Pinner Lions Club (CIO) remaining dormant during this period.

Harrow & Pinner Lions Charitable Trust (293625) has submitted its accounts.
