Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objectives of the CIO are to relieve poverty by meeting critical needs and improving the health and education of children, young people, women, families and the elderly, living in impoverished communities in Kenya, by making grants of money for the provision of materials or services for supporting and improving educational, sanitation, and female health projects or facilities.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The main activities, achievements and performance undertaken in relation to those purposes during the period.

The Janna foundation created funds through fundraising events online and in person and secured monthly individual givers to sponsor individual children.

The main activities undertaken during this period to further the charity's purpose for the public benefit.

The Janna foundation has online presence through social media outlets (Facebook and Instagram) where it is growing in followers, and a website documenting the different areas of work, namely Child Sponsorship, Children's Educational, Sexual, Reproductive & Menstrual Health, Family Support, and Anti-FGM Advocacy & Education, all of which have enabled the progression of the charity's aims and objectives.

The Janna Foundation has published its financial integrity and anti-bribery policies on the website to ensure public accessibility.

The trustees have had regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit in managing the activities of the charity.
