The charity was formed to continue, as a Charitable Incorporated Organisation, the business of its predecessor charity, registration no. 285169, operating under the same name.

The charity was first registered by The Charity Commission on 29 July 2020, and the section 105 Order authorising the transfer of assets to the charity from the predecessor charity, was made by The Commission on 21 October 2021.

The museum business transferred to the charity with effect from 1 October 2021, and assets started to be transferred to the charity from the predecessor charity, on 17 December 2021.

The charity was formed with 3 Trustees who were also Trustees of the predecessor charity. They, along with Member Volunteers, transferred their duties to the charity with effect from 1 October 2021.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The Objects of the organisation are to advance the education of the public by establishing a museum for the exhibition and preservation of aircraft and aeronautical equipment of historical and technical interest, particularly from the Second World War and more specifically, relating to the history of 100th Bomb Group, Thorpe Abbotts

The charity remained dormant during the 14 months to 30 September 2021, and accordingly no activities were undertaken by the charity for the public benefit in relation to the charity's objects.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The charity remained dormant during the 14 months to 30 September 2021, and accordingly there were no achievements by the charity during the year.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity remained dormant during the 14 months to 30 September 2021. Assets weren't transferred to the charity until 17 December 2021 onwards.
