Para 1.20	The 2023 Show had a good range of entries in all classes – sheep, horticulture, crafts and baking although there was less needlework than usual. There were the usual range of traditional sports and a falconry demonstration along with local musicians performing. This helps ensure the continuation of local traditional crafts and skills such as spinning, quilting, fiddle playing, poultry keeping and horticulture as well as supporting creativity in newer fields such as photography. It also ensures the survival of traditional local sports such as Cumberland wrestling. It brings together all segments of the community to celebrate their achievements.
