

Trustees' Annual Report for the period

From 01/01/24

To

31/12/24

Charity name: Harbottle Show Association

Charity registration number: 1190816

Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	To promote, advance and improve for the benefit of the public in Coquetdale and the surrounding area, agriculture, horticulture and rural crafts and skills in all their branches in particular by the holding of an annual show in the village of Harbottle, Northumberland.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	The traditional annual Show was held on September 7th and had over 600 visitors and it was generally agreed to have been a good day and well supported by the community.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	The trustees are mindful of the guidance on public benefit and confirm that the resources of Harbottle Show Association are being used to the benefit of the public in Coquetdale and the surrounding area.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The 2024 Show was the 150 th Show and included the 15 stone World Cumberland Wrestling Championship as well as some top Northumbrian musicians performing to celebrate the occasion. There was an exhibition about the history of the Show. As usual there was a good range of entries in all classes – sheep, horticulture, crafts and baking. There were the usual range of traditional sports. This helps ensure the continuation of local traditional crafts and skills such as spinning, quilting, fiddle playing, poultry keeping and horticulture as well as supporting creativity in newer fields such as photography. It brings together all segments of the community to celebrate their achievements.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	The association has a healthy bank balance for its purposes and made a small profit (£2,280) this year. There were a number of well-supported fund-raising events and the Show also covered its costs on the day.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	The charity aims to hold sufficient cash reserves to put on two Shows so that its work can continue if there is a disastrous year with no revenue.
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	£12,907

Additional information (optional)

The charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising)	Para 1.47	In this reporting period the main sources of fund were the entrance fees on Show day and fundraising. Fundraising on Show day includes the raffle, tombola and auction of produce as well as donation boxes, advertising in the schedule, and sponsorship of Show classes. Through the year there was a bingo session and four pub quizzes.
