Responsibilities and Basis of Report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act'). You consider that the audit requirement of section 144(2) of the Act does not apply and that an independent examination is needed.

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Act;
- follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b));
- and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect:
 - accounting records were not kept in respect of the charity as required by section 130 of the Act; or
 - the accounts do not accord with those records; or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Huddersfield Lions Club CIO

Background to these Accounts

In my role as Zone Chairman for Lions Clubs in West Yorkshire (MD105 Zone 9), I was requested in December 2022, to witness the closing down of the Huddersfield Lions Club, however when at the meeting I noticed that there were a few members who did not really want to close, but lacked the skills to take on the trustee and managerial roles at that time. The existing trustees all resigned for various reasons of health and age, taking most of the Club knowledge with them, (since when three have passed on). They had in their opinion done everything needed to square finances and close, but by trying to save club we kept it active, then found that one previous set of accounts had been posted to the Charity Commission Trust Fund (old club account) although they had opened a CIO account, which was showing an overdue accounts for the 2021/2022 period. Current Position The old account has now been closed, and the last accounts for 2022/2023 have, with some difficulty been completed and independently audited (28/6/2024). These will now be posted with this report. The report takes into account that from December 2022 until September 2023 the current trustees had been trying to change the bank details, and as such no transactions took place other than bank charges, during this period. The trustees also had difficulty in accessing the Charity Commission site as the contact had resigned and since passed away. For the period 2023/2024, the club now has full access and will be submitting accounts on time.

Allan Clark MJF on behalf of the Board of Huddersfield Lions Club CIO 30/6/2024

Addendum 12.6.2025

Due to the passing away of the Treasurer the 22/23 accounts were prepared on the basis of paper records as full bank details were unavailable. These restated accounts have been prepared with the benefit of full bank account access.

Lion Ray Milne, incoming Treasurer.
