Trustees:

Gary Hiron resigned as chairman in 2023.

Report and Activities:

This is the third operational year for M4M that has been difficult due to the trustees not being able to meet face to face because of where we all live in the country it has proven very difficult and the charity has been inactive, however we managed to get some donations in from our local supporters through donation tins and we sponsored a rounders team that also donated £600. Again we were very inactive due to the distance and are seriously thinking of Granting our remaining funds to Brain tumour charities and closing down in 2024.

The income received was £1200.00

The expenses paid £878.98, there are no creditors.

The retained balance as at year end 31st December 2023 is £11,626.92

Charitable donations:

No suitable beneficiaries were discovered in 2023.

2024 we will be looking at Granting the remaining funds to brain tumour charity's and closing the charity down officially.

Two trustees have resigned, as detailed above, due to other commitments but continue to support M4M into the future.

Report and Activities:

This is the inaugural year for M4M that has not been assisted by the Covid Pandemic and the resulting lockdowns that have interrupted all our daily lives. However with the determination to succeed and the leadership of the Chairman and the use of interactive technology a number of activities have taken place such as Quiz, Birthday bash and cocktail nights. Together with a Gym Challenge and charitable donations.

The retained balance as at year end 31st December 2021 is £11,671.13

At the yearend date there were no suitable recipients of charitable funds that met the M4M charitable criteria as currently stated. It is proposed that the status of potential M4M charitable fund recipients will be reviewed in the coming year with a view to widening such status to include more beneficiaries.

The M4M trustees and supporters look forward to 2022 & 2023 believing that it will be the time when it can build on a disrupted start and consolidate fund raising activities.
