Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

We aim to help in ending hunger and poverty in the UK . For this we have set up a food bank providing emergency food and support to people locked in poverty. We work as a non-profit charitable organisation that distribute food to those who have difficulty purchasing enough food to avoid hunger. We aim to develop a community feeling so that nobody should be ashamed to use the services of the food bank

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

- We collected food from both individuals as well as retail chains like ASDA, TESCO, Fairs hare, CITY Harvest, Surplus to Supper , Felix project, Rescued and Shared and members of the community.
- Coffee mornings have been are conducted once in a week
- Conducted wellbeing classes/ workshops 4 times in a month
- English classes have been conducted once in a week
- Food bank was kept open two times in a week , collection have been done two times a week.
- Cloth distribution have been done frequently
- Distribution of fridges and house hold equipments to needy families
- Organised activities for local community.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

Independent examiner's report on the accounts

Section A Independent Examiner's Report

Report to the trustees/ members of	Anne Shine Charity UK
On accounts for the year ended	31 MARCH 2024	Charity no (if any)	1190999
Set out on pages	(remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *)

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the 2011 Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Act have not been met ; or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Trustees' Annual Report

We launched the Foodbank on the 26th July 2020. Anne Shine charity began to get to know herself by fulfilling the role of a local food bank distribution service and also Wellbeing coffee morning, which has been greatly appreciated, being fully optimised from the beginning.

Why Is A 'Wellbeing' Coffee Morning Important?

The reason why we have referred to it as a "Wellbeing" coffee morning is due to the certifications of we have practiced and to-this-day have continued to provide. We have ensured that the people that have attended are not just getting a nice cup of morning coffee, but are well in themselves during these difficult times. We ensure that all the volunteers adhere to a structure of assurance and reassurance for all our attendees. The community has asserted a 'wellness' approach in respect of happiness, health and community/togetherness. As it is well-known and ongoingly experienced, much of the time associated with previously-‘recent’ events (regarding the pandemic), the technical aspects of such difficulty being faced, have involved following strict command, conduct, code and procedure, which creates more stress in and around our fellow service-users’ lives, which ASCUK (Anne Shine Charity UK) has projected and succeeded to alleviate as part of our wellbeing approach by providing the sentiment of stress-alleviating engagements – as well as practical approaches to dealing with surprisingly general issues (as this report shall later put).

How have we delivered HHC (Happiness, Health & Community) effectively to the contending members?

ASCUK understands that for substantive happiness, you ought to be healthy in yourself and that being happy involves and harbours an element of health that is (to be) addressed (happiness and health, correlating with one other).

Happiness

We projected that we ultimately won’t just serve as just ‘a place to come to’. One of the volunteers is selected to act and facilitate as a morning-host for all whom arrive; finding out what has been happening in peoples’ lives (in what had naturally conveniently sprung social gatherings & sharing) what they are more than happy and willing to share with a consistently available sanctuary of sorts. If anyone is feeling down, we like to address it accordingly with what they need, which brings the Health element of HHC (Happiness, Health & Community) into the hemisphere of ‘happiness’.

The point of AnneShineCharityUK addressing the act of ‘promoting happiness’ is because each volunteer is naturally and formally aware that in the activity of this, it surmounts to happiness being ‘generated-by- and is-something-constituted-by- its-being-shared’ amongst people together (correlating with the latter to part of HHC – Happiness, Health & Community).

Health

Our first initial addressing-of-people's-health has been asserted in a few crucial elements of people's wellbeing amongst the community – 'mental', 'visual', 'nutritional' and 'physical' wellbeing (thus far).

We have had:

- For Mental Health:Two Contenders:

- i. OneYouHounslow (oneyouhounslow.org) representatives coming in to address mental health as a more general discussion towards addressing such areas towards wellness.
- ii. A doctor coming in talking about the urgency of being made aware of depression as an issue of importance for groups of people and individuals suffering with it to deal with such, cope and manage it, practically

- For Visual Health:

We have had an optician come in to do off-chance checks and procedures to ensure that people can see clearly (enough) – as he has expressed crucially, on people having poor sight being culpable for potential accidents – ensuring they receive the right directions towards getting appropriate treatment (should they require it).The opportunities as urgently as a check-up might be needed, there might be scarcity in how often people can apply, as much as it can be made available to them.

- For Nutritional Health:

OneYouHounslow (oneyouhounslow.org) – as well as mental health, as expressed before –also took to incentivising people to mind and pay practical attention to what they choose to eat

- For Physical Health:

We have had a massage therapist facilitate for the benefit of bodily and mental stress relief and relaxation

Community

...Becomes apparent when all of everything that has been mentioned comes together

AnneShineCharityUK pays no mind to the hurdles and concepts of 'class-entitlement' care and believe people have a right to keep themselves well – by what necessary means we can make it available to them.

We are always looking for additional means of supporting people's health for now and the betterment of people's lives and futures

WHY WELLBEING COFFEE MORNING – AND EVERYTHING IT HAS SUMMOUNTED TO?

ASCUK could have opened their foodbank for the local community (just like every other foodbank), but we instead envisaged a great deal more we could do for people in current times and a great deal more we project to do for them in the future. Like all other relevant and non-relevant establishments or actively engaging charities; we understand the benefits of people isolating and distancing during the pandemic; though with as much care is needed to be practiced with such, there are those who are vulnerable and feel overwhelmed and restricted in themselves during the ongoing circumstances – leaving parts of their wellbeing and lifestyle not cared for and looked after. Families who have had their regular errands and their compulsory particulars, might have only so much as indulged in what is immediately available to them. Coffee morning has aimed and achieved an area of sanctuary that doesn't come obviously to everyone to satisfy 'immediately'. People who are unemployed or even homeless are restricted to the roads they tread to impress upon the high demands of Capitalist society – or otherwise remain reclusive to hide themselves from the world, in a multiple variation of ways. Where Wellbeing Coffee Morning has come in, we have ignited people's better interests and motivations to see to helping themselves and others. Refugees are maybe non-tenacious and not so accustomed to even the secular denominational areas and natures of this nation's culture. With all these groups and backgrounds assertively seen-to and respectively assisted, there coming here allows such people in their quite-individual struggles to address themselves and there quality of life with more unity, strength and humanity.

We are looking to alleviate and prevent any struggles and hardships in the local community – while incentivising togetherness (as people who work together have proven to go further than just doing things alone).

Funding, Food & Clothing Donations

Finance

All funding we've received up until now has come from two grant applications we've made from the council; as well as a small donation from Asda.

Food Donations

Our current food distributors are:

1. City Harvest
2. Fair Share
3. Asda
4. Tesco
5. Felix Project

Clothing Donations

The local community has freely donated clothes, every so often (randomly)

We also work closely and very collaboratively with a Muslim Charity Organisation that has provided a fair assortment of clothes for our community as well – working together to promote each other’s causes and development projects (Community-Wise)

All of our funding comes from a grant from the council.

- how you’ve spent your money in the past year
