Objectives and activities

Summary of the objectives the charity set out in its governing document:

Soul aid [Seva of universal Langar] are an outreach program who serves the less fortunate with hot meals, snacks and refreshments. We work on the principles of the Sikh faith of recognizing and serving the human race as one regardless of religion race or gender by sharing what you have with those that are less fortunate.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for public benefit:

The prevention of relief of poverty

Achievements and performance

Summary of the charity main achievements: Soul Aid provided hot meals, snacks and refreshments to NHS staff, Homeless, food banks and local community across several boroughs in London & Essex throughout the year. This year was a very challenging year due to the ongoing Covid 19 Pandemic, everything went well.

NHS staff were provided with hot meals, snacks and refreshments, to help them continue their work in supporting the nation during these challenging times.

The homeless were given support all year round, Winter packs were also handed out to the homeless. A number of lives have been transformed, including the lives of volunteers.
