Achievements & Performances

Books

Dar ul Ilm Community Hub provided Islamic books to promote education, understanding and access – but with a specific focus on spiritual development and religious knowledge. Below is the breakdown of the core reasons:

1- Promote Religious Literacy:

Many Muslims do not have access to authentic Islamic resources. Dar ul Ilm Community Hub provide Qur'ans, Hadith collections, and other texts to help people learn about Islamic teachings, beliefs, and practices.

2- Spread Accurate Knowledge About Islam:

To people for whom Islam is misunderstood or misrepresented, free Islamic books help:

- Dispel myths and misconceptions
- Promote peaceful coexistence and interfaith understanding

3- Empower Communities Spiritually:

- Access to Islamic knowledge strengthens faith (iman), morals, and community bonds.
- Books on topics like prayer, character, fasting, and family life can help Muslims live their faith more fully.

The charity’s activities carried out in the year 2021-22

Working with Muslim Hands UK

Since 2016, Yemen has been grappling with a persistent food insecurity crisis that originated during the Yemeni Civil War. The United Nations has approximated that the conflict has led to approximately 130,000 deaths, primarily stemming from indirect causes such as a shortage of food, healthcare services, and critical infrastructure. In a collaborative effort with Muslim Hands UK, we have organized an annual initiative focused on providing emergency food parcels to alleviate the dire situation in Yemen. We've successfully raised funds from the general public to support this cause.

Achievements and Performance

Over the recent timeframe, we were able to distribute more than 70 food parcels to Yemeni families facing severe food shortages. Each food parcel provided essential sustenance for a month to a single family and had a value of £125 per parcel. In total, our contributions amounted to a generous sum of £7,025. This accomplishment was made possible thanks to the generosity of our donors.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINERS REPORT
FOR THE PERIOD 15 SEP 2021 TO 14 SEP 2022 TO THE TRUSTEES

I report on the accounts for the period 15th September 2021 to 14th September 2022 set out below.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for the period (under Section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act)) and that an independent examination is required.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- Examine the accounts
- Follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under Section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act); and
- To state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of the independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiners statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) Which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements have not been met;

or

- (2) To which. In my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Throughout the past period, we managed to donate 70 plus food parcels to Yemeni families in Yemen who were in dire need of food. The food parcels we donated were enough for one month for a single family which was worth a £100/parcel.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for the period (under Section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act)) and that an independent examination is required.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- Examine the accounts
- Follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under Section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act); and
- To state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of the independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiners statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) Which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements have not been met;

or

- (2) To which. In my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
