2. Objectives and Activities

The primary objective of the We Love Pets Foundation is to advance education for the public benefit in matters pertaining to the animal welfare of pets and the prevention of cruelty and suffering among them. This includes:

- Researching pets and pet behaviour.
- Educating the public on ways to improve their welfare and care standards through the media and other methods.
- Providing support for the welfare of pets.
- Making grants to other registered charities with aligned purposes.

During this period, no active projects or funding were received, and the Foundation did not generate any income or turnover. However, we remain committed to our mission and will continue to explore opportunities to fulfil our objectives in the future.

3. Financial Review

There were no financial transactions during the period, resulting in no income or expenditure for the Foundation. Consequently, the financial position remains unchanged from the previous year.
