Responsibilities and
basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination (other than that disclosed below *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To advance the education, for the benefit of the public in the subject of Taoism; including the cultural arts, science and philosophy of Taoism, in particular but not exclusively by the holding of meditations, community classes and producing and /or distributing literature.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Through the year and especially during planning meetings the trustees have taken into account the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit (ref. Charities and public benefit - January 2008, as amended December 2011).

In accordance with the stated Objectives of the charity, during 2021/22 the ITS has supported community classes and workshops throughout the UK to educate the public on the subject of Taoism.

Focus has been on providing support to teachers who had moved their classes online to return to in person teaching. This support has included technical advice and training and financial help with setup and running costs of classes.

The ITS is in the process of finalising a rental agreement for a property in Play San Juan, Tenerife, Spain to act as the Sea Cloud Temple. We hope to use this as a base to help increase membership and further our long term aim of purchasing our own property outright.

The ITS is has changed its structure to become a charitable incorporated organisation (CIO), this will allow us to purchase a property for the Sea Cloud Temple. The new structure is now set up and recognised by the Charity Commission and we are now operating as the CIO (charity number 1191720) and the unincorporated charity of the same name (charity number 1151959) will shortly be closed. There are no changes to the constitution or aims of the new charity compared to the current one, other than becoming incorporated.

These activities are in line with the aims and objectives of the ITS and have further advanced the education of the public on the subject of Taoism for the benefit of the public.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

This year the ITS have progressed in our aim to establish a permanent home of our own in the "Sea Cloud Temple" by renting a building in Playa San Juan, Tenerife Spain which we believe will help increase membership and aid fundraising to allow us to move from renting to purchasing our own property in the long term.

The main focus this year was setting up the Sea Cloud Temple in Tenerife from which live, online classes can be practised with participants joining in classes from wherever they may be. This has been much appreciated by more isolated participants.

With the end of Covid restrictions we have been delighted to return to in-person classes however many teachers have reported reduced numbers of participants as some people are still nervous of gathering indoors with others. To address this the ITS has offered financial support to help teachers re-establish and grow their classes as well as technical / professional development support.

The experience of moving all classes online during Covid restrictions was a steep learning curve but several teachers have used this experience to expand their classes and are teaching in person and online – often in the same class. We aim to spread these innovative practises throughout the organisation and are including this in our teacher training.

The ITS is grateful to the volunteers who give their time and expertise free of charge.
