

Trustees' Annual Report for the year

from 1 October 2022 to 30th September 2023

Kirby Laing Centre for Public Theology in Cambridge

Charity registration number: 1191741

Objectives and Activities

Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	To advance the Evangelical Christian Religion, in particular (but without limitation) through fostering and nurturing Christian scholarship in public theology and ethics that is open to and engaging with society as a whole, and through the development of an intellectual community of Christian scholars, and through publishing research.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	• Monthly or bi-monthly virtual events. • Face to face events at Society of Biblical Literature with Annual Meal attended by some 80 people. • Free publications at popular and accessible levels: The Big Picture (TBP) and Ethics in Conversation. TBP is published three times per year, free online and for sale in hard copy. • Frequent speaking engagements by the Director.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	The trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit

Additional information:

Policy on grant making	The charity administers a number of grants to students under different schemes. The charity has adopted procedures for each of the different schemes.
Contribution made by volunteers	The activities of the charity have been enhanced by the contribution of volunteers who have assisted with the coordination of research activities and the development of fundraising.
Other	Research continues to develop, most notably through some 15 research hubs, our Scripture Collective series of books with Zondervan Academic, and the Director's books and writings.

Achievements and Performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	- The charity has grown significantly in its third year of independent operation. - The number of Associate Fellows has grown to over 150. - Those attending events, reading material, watching videos or listening to podcasts have been informed and inspired on matters relating to religion and how to live well and sustainably. - Our events, publications, and research hubs serve our core constituency of Christians scholars seeking to orient their work towards how then shall we live? The Big Picture magazine, popular books showcasing the director's ideas, and podcasts are introducing an international public to the charity's vision.

Accounting policies

2.1 INCOME

Recognition of income

These are included in the Statement of Financial Activities (SoFA) when:

- the charity becomes entitled to the resources;
- it is more likely than not that the trustees will receive the resources; and
- the monetary value can be measured with sufficient reliability.

Yes	No	N/a

Offsetting

There has been no offsetting of assets and liabilities, or income and expenses, unless required or permitted by the FRS 102 SORP or FRS 102.

Yes	No	N/a

Grants and donations

Grants and donations are only included in the SoFA when the general income recognition criteria are met (5.10 to 5.12 FRS102 SORP).

Yes	No	N/a

In the case of performance related grants, income must only be recognised to the extent that the charity has provided the specified goods or services as entitlement to the grant only occurs when the performance related conditions are met (5.16 FRS 102 SORP).

Yes	No	N/a

Legacies

Legacies are included in the SOFA when receipt is probable, that is, when there has been grant of probate, the executors have established that there are sufficient assets in the estate and any conditions attached to the legacy are either within the control of the charity or have been met.

Yes	No	N/a

Government grants

The charity has received government grants in the reporting period

Yes	No	N/a

Tax reclaims on donations and gifts

Gift Aid receivable is included in income when there is a valid declaration from the donor. Any Gift Aid amount recovered on a donation is considered to be part of that gift and is treated as an addition to the same fund as the initial donation unless the donor or the terms of the appeal have specified otherwise.

Yes	No	N/a

Contractual income and performance related grants

This is only included in the SoFA once the charity has provided the related goods or services or met the performance related conditions.

Yes	No	N/a

Donated goods

Donated goods are measured at fair value (the amount for which the asset could be exchanged) unless impractical to do so.

Yes	No	N/a

The cost of any stock of goods donated for distribution to beneficiaries is deemed to be the fair value of those gifts at the time of their receipt and they are recognised on receipt. In the reporting period in which the stocks are distributed, they are recognised as an expense at the carrying amount of the stocks at distribution.

Yes	No	N/a

Donated goods for resale are measured at fair value on initial recognition, which is the expected proceeds from sale less the expected costs of sale, and recognised in 'Income from other trading activities' with the corresponding stock recognised in the balance sheet. On its sale the value of stock is charged against 'Income from other trading activities' and the proceeds from sale are also recognised as 'Income from other trading activities'.

Yes	No	N/a

Goods donated for on-going use by the charity are recognised as tangible fixed assets and included in the SoFA as incoming resources when receivable.

Yes	No	N/a

Gifts in kind for use by the charity are included in the SoFA as income from donations when receivable.

Yes	No	N/a

Donated services and facilities

Donated services and facilities are included in the SOFA when received at the value of the gift to the charity provided the value of the gift can be measured reliably.

Yes	No	N/a

Donated services and facilities that are consumed immediately are recognised as income with an equivalent amount recognised as an expense under the appropriate heading in the SOFA.

Yes	No	N/a

Support costs

The charity has incurred expenditure on support costs.

Yes	No	N/a

Volunteer help

The value of any voluntary help received is not included in the accounts but is described in the trustees' annual report.

Independent Examiner's Report

Report to the trustees/members of

Kirby Laing Centre for Public Theology in Cambridge (CIO)

On accounts for the period ended

30th September 2023

Charity
no.

1191741

Set out on pages

5 to 10

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity for the year ended 30th September 2023.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
