

Trustees' Annual Report for the Period 1 July 2021 - 30 June 2022

Introduction

We are pleased to present the Trustees' Annual Report for Fisayo Foundation for the period 1 July 2021 to 30 June 2022. As trustees, we have continued to oversee the governance and strategic direction of the charity, ensuring its adherence to its charitable objectives and commitment to the well-being of its beneficiaries. This report provides an overview of our activities, achievements, and financial performance during the year.

Charitable Objectives

Fisayo Foundation is committed to providing or assisting in the provision of facilities in the interests of social welfare for recreation or other leisure time occupation of individuals who have a need for such facilities due to their youth, age, infirmity or disability, financial hardship, or social circumstances. Our objective is to improve the conditions of life for these individuals and promote their overall well-being.

Activities and Beneficiaries

Throughout the year, Fisayo Foundation has continued to fulfill its charitable objectives by providing advocacy, advice, and information to people of a particular ethnic or racial origin, as well as the general public. We recognize the importance of supporting and empowering individuals who face challenges due to their background or circumstances.

Our activities have been aimed at enhancing social welfare and improving the quality of life for our beneficiaries. We have also established partnerships and collaborations with other organizations that share our mission, enabling us to reach a wider audience and create a more significant impact.

Operational Reach

Fisayo Foundation operates throughout England, aiming to serve individuals in various communities across the country. By ensuring our services are accessible and available, we can effectively support those in need, regardless of their geographic location.

Organizational Structure

Fisayo Foundation is registered as a Charitable Incorporated Organization (CIO) since 12 October 2020. The charity is governed by three trustees who have been appointed to provide strategic oversight and decision-making. The current trustees and their roles are as follows:

1. Olatokunbo Ojo-Williams - Chair (Appointed on 5 November 2020)
2. Joseph Awhinawhi - Trustee (Appointed on 31 January 2021)
3. Tolulope Ojo-Williams - Trustee (Appointed on 5 November 2020)

We are dedicated to fulfilling our fiduciary responsibilities and ensuring compliance with legal and regulatory requirements.

Financial Performance

During the reporting period, Fisayo Foundation was not recognized by HMRC for gift aid. However, we have actively explored opportunities to diversify our funding sources and strengthen our financial stability. By managing our resources prudently, we have allocated funds effectively to support our charitable activities and deliver the greatest possible impact for our beneficiaries.

Regulatory Compliance and Policies

Fisayo Foundation is committed to the welfare and protection of vulnerable beneficiaries. We have implemented policies and procedures to safeguard their well-being and ensure their safety during our activities. Additionally, we maintain robust volunteer management practices to provide a supportive and inclusive environment for our dedicated volunteers.

Conclusion

In conclusion, Fisayo Foundation remains steadfast in its commitment to fulfilling its charitable objectives and improving the conditions of life for individuals who require support due to their ethnic or racial background, financial hardship, or social circumstances. We extend our gratitude to our trustees, volunteers, partners, and donors for their invaluable support, as they play a vital role in helping us make a positive difference in the lives of those we serve.

On behalf of the trustees,
