1.0 FOREWORD: 2022 SUMMARY

The Youth Charter believes that it is a fundamental human right that young people have access to sport, arts and cultural activity as part of their mental, physical and emotional health, wellbeing and development.

When this right is denied, the disadvantage and disaffection lead to antisocial behaviours, gang related activity and in some cases extremism. This impacts on the quality of life, not only of the young person, but their victims, families, friends, communities, and society as a whole.

2022 was one of the most important years in the agency’s journey to date with the Birmingham 2022 Commonwealth Games providing a strategic focus and platform in establishing consolidation of our efforts to take forward our national and global #Calls2Action, #LegacyOpportunity4All and #Fight4theStreets.

This report provides a reflection of an extraordinary effort of many trustees, volunteers and multi-agency stakeholders and the relationships that lie at the very heart of the Youth Charter brokering, facilitating, and collaborating to realise the events, projects, programmes and initiatives that led up to, included and above all will continue post Birmingham 2022 Games that was deemed the best ever.

The emphasis is now on a Birmingham 2022 Games Legacy that will also build on the 10th anniversary of the 2012 Olympic and Paralympic games. The Spirit of 2012 Inquiry Commission Report, that the Youth Charter has contributed to, will also assist the agency’s future work, which can only be realised with the right commitment, capacity and capability invested in our work.

The coming year will see the European Youth Olympic Festival (Slovinia), Commonwealth Youth Games (Trinidad) and the All-Africa Games (Ghana) all providing important milestones in our continued efforts in seeing the Sport for Development and Peace Movement deliver the Sustainable Development Goals that are so critical in the lives of young people and communities globally.

And finally, we would like to thank our volunteers, Trustees, support agencies, stakeholders and above all, the young people who continue to provide the motivation and continued dedication of effort in all that we do.

2.0 THE YOUTH CHARTER: A 29 YEAR GAMES LEGACY

The Youth Charter launched on 23rd March 1993, at Wembley Stadium, in response to the tragic murder of 14-year-old schoolboy Benji Stanley, who was shot dead in Moss Side on 2nd January 1993.

The Youth Charter is a 29 Year Games Legacy of Manchester's bid for the 2000 Olympic Games and the hosting of the Manchester 2002 Commonwealth Games that has inspired a global Sport for Development and Peace movement/sector.

The Youth Charter has campaigned and promoted the role and value of sport, arts, culture and digital technology in the lives of disaffected young people from disadvantaged communities nationally and internationally.

The Youth Charter has a proven track record in the creation and delivery of social and human development legacy projects and programmes with the overall aim of providing young people with an opportunity through sport, art, culture and digital technology to develop in life.

Through our work with youth and communities the Youth Charter has pioneered three core youth and community development programmes:

- Community Campus – Somewhere to Go
- Youthwise “Curriculum for Life” – Something to Do
- Social Coach Leadership Programme – Someone to Show Them

These programmes aim to:

- Engage young people through sport, art, culture and digital activity
- Equip them with mental, physical and emotional life-skills and resilience
- Empower them with the aspiration of further and higher, employment and entrepreneurship.

2.1 YC '29' TIMELINE

3.0 2022 IN DETAIL...

2022 saw the Youth Charter prepare, plan and present its ongoing projects, programmes, campaigning, and advocacy initiatives in the lead up to and including the Birmingham 2022 Commonwealth Games.

The strategic mission aims and objectives were to reengage and consolidate the agency's work locally, nationally, and internationally. This would hopefully see a truly multi agency stakeholder integrated approach reflected in the ongoing development and implementation of the Community Campus and our National and Global #Call2Action.

The Youth Charter Community Campus Portal launch at the Youth Sport & Physical Activity Legacy Summit at Birmingham City University on Monday 5th September 2022 with stakeholders and partners

5.0 COMMUNITY CAMPUS MODEL

A Model of Equality, Diversity, Inclusion and Participation for All through Sports, Art, Culture and Digital Activity...

Synopsis

The Youth Charter Community Campus has been developed as a result of the agency's 29 years of work in communities, urban, suburban and rural, locally, nationally and internationally.

As part of the bidding, hosting and legacy of major games, the Community Campus provides a coordinated and holistic approach in the development, delivery and sustainability of young people and communities within the regeneration and renewal strategies of public, private and third sector agencies.

The Community Campus is a unique model providing an opportunity to bring together policy, delivery and impact in the current sports for development and peace movement.

The Community Campus has three main elements:

- Engage young people through sport, art, cultural and digital activity
- Equip them with mental, physical and emotional life-skills and resilience
- Empower them with the aspiration of further and higher education, employment and entrepreneurship.

What is a Community Campus?

A Community Campus is made up of hub facilities, such as, schools, community centres, youth clubs, sports centres, further and higher education institutions or any facility delivering a youth cultural engagement provision. Each facility is quality assured in the delivery of the Social Coach Leadership Programme and the Youthwise offer.

How does it work?

The community Campus is delivered through three key themes:

- Somewhere to Go
- Something to Do
- Someone to Show Them

A unique multi media interactive digital platform has been designed for each participant and Social Coach delivering the activities within each of the facilities that make up the Community Campus. This provides the ability to map, track and measure the participation outputs and outcomes of the wider social and cultural behavioural lifestyle trends that inform the economic investment that we seek to attract.

What are the benefits?

The Youth Charter Community Campus provides a social, cultural and economic opportunity for young people and communities on five continents. The aim is to establish a global network of campuses that provide a cultural framework and a model of delivery to promote innovative and dynamic approaches within the UN 2030 Sustainable Development Goals.

5.1 LEGACY CULTURAL FRAMEWORK & LEGACY DEVELOPMENT GOALS

The Youth Charter Community Campus Model provides a Legacy Cultural Framework for the delivery of 'Sport Development in the Community' and 'Community Development through Sport' programmes with social, cultural and economic outputs and outcomes.

The outputs and outcomes of the Youth Charter Community Campus and Legacy Cultural Framework are measured against the following Legacy Development Goals (LDGs):

- 1. EDUCATION - attendance, attainment and performance
- 2. HEALTH - physical activity, wellbeing and active lifestyle
- 3. CITIZENSHIP - civic rights, responsibilities and youth justice
- 4. ENVIRONMENT - community cohesion, quality of life and access to facilities
- 5. COLLEGE, UNIVERSITY, EMPLOYMENT AND ENTERPRISE - skills training, internships and apprenticeships

The Youth Charter Legacy Development Goals are underpinned by:

- COLLABORATION & PARTNERSHIP
- EQUALITY, DIVERSITY, INCLUSION AND PARTICIPATION (EDIP)

The Youth Charter's Legacy Cultural Framework and Legacy Development Goals provide added value to the delivery of the UN Sustainable Development Goals and the UN 2030 Youth Strategy.

Please see Table 5 for the Youth Charter's Legacy Development Goals, which are applied to the UN 2030 Sustainable Development Goals.

COLLABORATION & PARTNERSHIP...

The Youth Charter can only realise its mission aim, objectives, projects, programmes and initiatives in a spirit of genuine collaboration and partnerships at all levels of the sport for development and peace eco-system to see our

We continue to broker, facilitate and build the all-important agency and organisational multi agency relationships that ensure that real, lasting and sustainable impact is made in the lives of the young people and communities we are all dedicated and committed to empowering.

WHAT WE DO...

The Youth Charter tackles educational non-attainment, health inequality, antisocial behaviour and the negative effects of crime, drugs, gang related activity and racism by applying the ethics of sporting and artistic excellence. These can then be translated to provide social and economic benefits of citizenship rights and responsibilities, with improved education, health, social & civil order, environment, vocation, training, employment and enterprise opportunities for all.

The Youth Charter adopts a multi-faceted approach to achieving its objectives, often by forging partnerships with a wide range of public and private sector agencies – engaging, motivating and inspiring achievable and sustainable benefits.

WHAT PEOPLE SAY ABOUT US...

"I have had the unique perspective to witness the work of the Youth Charter within its birth, development and coming of age. I was to witness the Youth Charters' growth and impact in the UK and in South Africa. One of the highlights of the many Youth Charter programme initiatives was the "Spirit of the Streets Tour of South Africa", which followed Manchester's highly successful 2002 Commonwealth Games. I had the privilege of hosting the Tour Group with fellow IOC Honorary Member, Dame Mary Glen Haig and witness the development and growth of young people who had been exposed to travel and the social and cultural diversity of the new South Africa."

Sam Ramsamy, IOC Executive Member

"I first became involved with Youth Charter as a teenager because I felt passionately that everyone should have a chance in sport like I had, regardless of their background. The charity has gone global, using sport as a bridge to bring even the most socially-challenged youngsters back onto a positive path."

Dame Sarah Storey DBE, Team GB record Paralympic Medal Winner

Our Philosophy

"Sport is an order of chivalry, a code of ethics and aesthetics, recruiting its members from all classes and all peoples. Sport is a truce, in an era of antagonisms and conflicts, it is the respite of the Gods in which fair competition ends in respect and friendship (Olympism). Sport is education, the truest form of education, that of character. Sport is culture because it enhances life and, most importantly, does so for those who usually have the least opportunity to feast on it."

Rene Maheu
Former Director of UNESCO

Our Vision

"Vision without action is a dream. Action without vision is merely passing time. Vision with action can change the world..."

Nelson Mandela

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity for the period ended 31st December 2022.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011.

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's Statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- The accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- The accounts did not accord with the accounting record; or
- The accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and contents of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a "true and fair" view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
