Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document (eg. trust deed, constitution)	Constitution
How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	Constitution
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	By majority vote by the Trustee

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system

The major risk facing the church is the lack of permanent place of worship. The church does not own any of its places of worship neither does it have any long-term lease to ensure reasonable assurance of continual service. The church is on the search to acquire its own permanent place of worship or acquire a long-term lease for all its branches.

and procedures to manage them.

Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To advance the Christian faith in the United Kingdom and the world, for the benefit of the public in accordance with the worldwide teachings of the Divine Healing Church International in compliance with the inspired writings as contained in the Holy Bible, Through the Holding of Prayer meetings, lectures and church planting.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The main activities undertaken by the church during the year under consideration include the following:

Organising of worship services

Organising teaching services about the Lord Jesus Christ

Organizing Evangelistic outreach programs in the community

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking.
- policy programme related investment.
- contribution made by volunteers.

The church relies on the voluntary services of its members to discharge its services. The key areas where the volunteers serve include the following:

Technical department
Choristers
Ussher's department
Finance Team
Welfare Department

The trustees would like to thank all the volunteers for their time and services they have offered over the years to keep the church going.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The church was able to organise worship services from April 2022 despite the financial challenges that we had

It is hoped that many more people will join the church as it undertakes more evangelistic work in the community

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The church is aiming at setting a reserve policy of keeping at least three months rent and overheads to enable it to operate in the absence of church meeting or should there be a drop in the income donated by members . This currently will be £5000.00

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity.
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

Tithes and offering remain the source of income for the church. The Trustees are committed to encouraging members of the church to continue giving consistently according to their ability to enable the church to fulfil its obligation and to have sufficient resources to finance other programs and projects its planned to undertake.

The church does not have an investment policy at the moment but as and when the time demands the trustees will develop a policy to manage any investment that it undertakes to generate extra income t the charity
